168th Annual Convention

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA

MONDAY, MAY 5, 1952 5:00 P.M.

The One Hundred Sixty-eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in The Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled at The Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, on Monday, May 5, 1952 at 5:00 P.M., in accordance with the Constitution, the Resolution of the last Convention and the appointment of the Bishop.

The Bishop of the Diocese called the Convention to order and opened the session with prayer.

A Quorum being present the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Long was duly elected Secretary and the Rev. Dr. John R. Huggins was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5:30 P.M. on Tuesday, May 6, 1952, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7:45 P.M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 7, 1952, at 9:30 A.M.

The Rev. Harold A. Hopkins presented the Report of the Committee on Arrangements which was adopted.

The Secretary reported that there was no unfinished business.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the Officers of the Executive Council and the Executive Officer of the Philadelphia Protestant Epsicopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary reported further:

Alernates have no seats, or votes in Convention except when they register with the Assistant Secretary certifying they are authorized to take the place of the elected deputy.

The Secretary reported as follows:

During the past year the Secretary has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons as far as possible.

On December 23, 1951 the Parochial Reports were mailed and that on February 1st, 1952 when these reports were due only 110 of the 207 had been received. The Secretary would again stress the importance of making full returns on the Annual Report of the Diocese for the General Convention.

That under date of March 2, 1952 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the 168th Annual Convention.

The boxes for the registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibule of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That on May 5, 1952 Parishes, Missions and Chapels of the Diocese entitled to membership in this Convention had not qualified as follows:

Of the 151 Parishes the following has not sent in the Certificate for Lay Deputies and therefore has no lay Deputy in this Convention:

St. John Chrysostom

Of the 19 Missions entitled to a Lay Deputy the following has not sent the Certificate for a Lay Deputy and therefore has no Lay Deputy in this Convention:

Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown

The Rev. Wm. Roulston McKean offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. John R. Logan, D.D., Convener

The Rev. Arthur Davis Appleton — The Rev. Arthur Murray

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. Thomas B. K. Ringe, Convener

Mr. W. P. Heston — Mr. Edward Morris

The Chairman of the Committee on Elections offered five changes in Standing Orders for The Annual Meeting of The Convention, each of which changes was on Motion adopted as follows:

I The Opening of the Convention.
change line No. 4 to read 9 a.m. instead of 9:30 substitute the words "Holy Communion for the following: Saying the Lord's Prayer and suitable Collects.

II No. 5 add "be referred to Committee on Resolutions and then"
No. 6 add (e) Committee on Resolutions

III No. 1 change from 9:30 to 9:00

IV Change No. 1 from 5:30 to 7:45 to 6:00 to 8:00 P.M.
No. 3 add (d) On Resolution

V Nominations and Elections to offices filled by vote of Convention.

1. The preparation of the list of nominations, and the preparation and distribution of the election ballot, hereinafter provided for, shall be the duty of the Committee on Elections, of which the secretary of Convention shall be chairman, save when by reason of absence or disability he may designate another member to act in his stead.

2. The Committee on Elections shall place on the list of nominations the offices to be filled at the coming Convention and the names of the persons now serving in the above office including the appointed members of the Executive Council.

3. Any ten persons, clerical or lay, entitled to vote in the last Convention or eligible to vote in the coming Convention, may nominate any person or persons for election to office by writing duly signed and directed to the chairman of the Committee on Elections to arrive in his care not later than forty days prior to the date of Convention.

4. Not later than thirty days before the date of Convention the Committee on Elections shall notify each nominee listed by virtue of section 2 of the fact of his nomination and of his right to withdraw. Names withdrawn not later than twenty five days before the date of Convention shall not be printed on the election ballot.

5. Not later than ten days before the date of Convention the Committee on Elections shall send to each member thereof a printed election ballot bearing the names of all nominees not withdrawn. Names printed on the ballot shall be placed in Alphabetical order and the incumbent of each office shall be designated by an asterisk.

Under No. 5—no 2—change verb "are" to verb "is"

Under No. 5—no 3—change 2 P.M. to read 7 P.M.

Change 2:30 to read 7.45

Add No. 3 to IX

Resolutions must be in writing, signed and introduced into Convention before noon the 2nd day and referred to Committee on Resolutions. A two third vote is required for a resolution to be immediately considered.

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballott was sent out to 231 Clerical Deputies, according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to Vote and to the Rectors of the 151 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies and to Vicars (1 each) for the Missionary Lay Deputies.

That from the 108 Preliminary Ballots returned, the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of the Convention.

That the Elections to be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The first ballot to be taken at 7:00 P.M. on May 5th.

For the Committee,

CHARLES H. LONG, Chairman.

The Secretary reported the Nomination for Officers to be filled by Election as certified by the Committee on Elections.

The Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather offered the following Resolution, which being seconded, was referred to the Committee on The Dispatch of Business:

RESOLUTION ON THE UNITED NATIONS AND WORLD GOVERNMENT ADOPTED BY THE TRIENNIAL GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH—OCTOBER, 1949.

WHEREAS the most powerful governments in the world, including our own, assert their present ability not only to bring untold pain and destruction upon the people of the earth but to annihilate cities and all the works of men and reduce what survivors there may be to an existence on the level of brutes; and

WHEREAS there is no reason to suppose that this awful power will not be employed by fallible and sinful men; and

WHEREAS it is necessary that there be instituted an international order limiting national sovereignty and administering world law binding upon both nations and individuals for the establishment and maintenance of just and enduring peace and for the prevention of international war; and

WHEREAS the organization of the United Nations represents a great step toward such an international order but has not yet been granted sufficient powers to accomplish its purpose: Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that it should be a fundamental objective of the foreign policy of the United States of America to support and strengthen the United Nations and to seek to develop through the United Nations or otherwise a world government, open to all peoples, with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and prevent aggression through the enactment and enforcements of world law; and be it further

RESOLVED, that we call on all God-fearing and peace loving people to join in this effort.

WHEREAS, the Department of Christian Social Relations, Diocese of Pennsylvania, warmly endorses the resolution of the 1949 Triennial General Convention quoted above, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Department urges the Diocese of Pennsylvania to encourage its delegates at the 1952 Triennial General Convention to support re-affirmation of this Resolution.

The Rev. Dr. William N. Parker offered the following Resolution, which being seconded, was referred to the Committee on The Dispatch of Business:

WHEREAS Canon 5, Section 1, of the General Convention, requires "a report of every parish and other congregation of this Church shall be prepared annually for the year ending December 31st, preceding, and it shall be sent not later than February 1st to the bishop of the diocese or missionary district. The preparation and delivery of this report shall be the joint duty of the rector and vestry, and in every other congregation the duty of the minister in charge thereof."

WHEREAS the preparation of this report involves very considerable time, thought and labor on the part of both rector and accounting warden, which must be given in January alone, one of the busiest months of the year for rectors and ministers;

AND WHEREAS it is extremely difficult adequately to prepare and present this report by February 1st;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania request the General Convention that the time required by Canon 5 for presenting the annual reports of parishes and congregations be changed from February 1st to March 1st.

The Rev. George W. Wickersham offered the following amendment to the Constitution, which being seconded, was referred to the Committee on The Dispatch of Business:

That the words "Lay Persons" be substituted for the word "Laymen" in Sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

The President appointed the Judges and Tellers as follows:

The Committee on Claims of Clergy to Seats and the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats reported that no Claims had been received.

The Report of the Commission on Music was presented by title by the Rev. William P. C. Loane, Chairman, who offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted (Appendix S, page 315).

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

RESOLVED, That the appropriation for the work of the Commission on Music for 1953 be $700.00.

The Bishop of the Diocese then presented Mrs. U. Grant Beath, President of the Diocesan Branch of The Woman's Auxiliary, who addressed the Convention concerning the ideals and work of the Auxiliary.

On behalf of the Convention, Bishop Hart thanked Mrs. Beath for her address and through her all Women of the Diocese for their work for The Church.

On Motion the Convention recessed for supper at 6 P.M. and for the casting of the First Ballot at 7 P.M. The polls were declared closed at 7:45 P.M.

At 8 P.M. a Diocesan Mass Meeting was held in The Church of The Holy Trinity, attended by the Deputies of The Convention and Members of the Diocese; the Clergy vested; the music was rendered by The Diocesan Choir; the Offering together with the Offering at the Communion Service amounting to $515.53 was designated by the Bishop for the Rebuilding Fund for St. Thomas Church, West Philadelphia. The Bishop presented by title THE ANNUAL ADDRESS and spoke particularly concerning some of the matters contained in THE ADDRESS.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
9 A.M., TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1952

The Convention reassembled as above.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop assisted by Bishop Armstrong and Bishop Roberts and the Reverend Messrs. de Bordenave and Longley.

The Convention was called to order at 10 A.M. by the Bishop, who presided, and opened the session with prayer.

The Committee on The Dispatch of Business reported further.

The President declared Edward Shippen Morris, Esq. duly elected Commissary for three years.

On Motion, there being no further nominations, the Convention recessed for twenty-five minutes for the casting of the Second Ballot.

The Rev. Dr. Snowden rose to a point of order to inquire as to the apparent discrepancy between the number of ballots cast and the vote recorded for Clerical Member of the Standing Committee. The President referred the matter to the Judges of Election who replied that a number of Deputies had refrained from voting a full ballot.

The polls were opened and declared closed at 10:45 A.M.

The Special Order of the Day having arrived, Mr. Daniel A. Newhall presented the Report on The Advancement Fund showing gifts and subscriptions of $389,200.00 for The Divinity School Memorial Building, New Buildings for Churches and Missions and for The Diocesan Conference Center (Appendix W, page 321).

The Bishop thanked Mr. Newhall and the members of his Committee for their work and efforts for the Diocese.

The Committee on Incorporation presented its Report by Mr. John L. Evans (Appendix P, page 311) and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted and approved by the Convention.

I. RESPECTING INCORPORATION OF NEW PARISHES

RESOLVED, That NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE be approved by the Convention to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

The Bishop of the Diocese congratulated the Vicar and people of St. George's Church, Ardmore and welcomed the Deputies to seats in the Convention.

RESOLVED, that THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

The Bishop of the Diocese congratulated the Vicar and people of the Church of the Incarnation, Morrisville and welcomed the Deputies to seats in the Convention.

RESOLVED that ST. PETER'S CHURCH, Glenside, be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles in Incorporation of ST. PETER'S CHURCH be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

The Bishop of the Diocese congratulated the Vicar and people of St. Peter's Church, Glenside and welcomed the Deputies to seats in the convention.

II. RESPECTING INFORMAL AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION BY BY-LAW THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. MARK'S CHURCH IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA has amended its charter by by-law to provide for a rotating vestry of twelve members. This amendment is in conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation.

The Committee on Incorporation further reported their approval of the change of the following Articles of the Charter of The Church of The Good Shepherd:

L. The name of the corporation shall be "The Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, Pennsylvania."

"VII. The Qualifications, method of selection, tenure, duties and number of officers of vestry shall be such as the statutes and by-laws may from time to time prescribe."

The Report of The Committee on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions was presented by title by The Rev. Dr. James M. Niblo, who offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted (Appendix N. page 301).

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rector's Salaries and Pensions be authorized to have the Executive Council assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1952 the sum of $6,000.

RESOLVED, That after July 1, 1952, the minimum salary of Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, be fixed as follows:

A. 1. At $3,000 with Rectory or living quarters and pensions premium for the first year that a single Clergyman has been Holy Orders.

A. 2. At $3,300 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for single Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year.

B. 1. At $3,300 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for the first year that a married Clergyman has been in Holy Orders, plus an allowance of $100 a year for each child under 18 years of age, provided the total salary does not exceed $3,800.

B. 2. At $3,500 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for a married Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year, plus an allowance of $100 a year for each child under 18 years of age, provided the total salary does not exceed $3,800.

C. If no Rectory or living quarters be provided for such Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, then the sum of $500 shall be added to the salary, or such portion as may be deemed necessary, at the discretion of the Bishop in consultation with the Dean of the Convocation concerned, shall decide.

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions may in its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, disregard these schedules as to years of service for good and sufficient reasons, as for example in the cases of men coming into the Ministry late in life, and also in the cases of men coming into our Ministry from other religious bodies with some years of ministerial experience in their former connections.

The Special order of the Day being The Treasurer's Report, Mr. Frederick R. Drayton presented by title the Report, which included the Christmas Fund, which Reports on Motion were accepted (Appendix H, page 186).

The Tentative Budget of the Diocese for 1953 was presented by title by the Rev. Dr. Shreiner for The Budget Committee. Dr. Shreiner spoke of several items in the Budget; the Rev. Dr. Stanley R. West spoke concerning the item of Juvenile Court Work.

The Rev. Dr. Shreiner offered the following Resolutions which on Motion were adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania approve accepting the full assignment by National Council for 1952 being $308,614.08.

RESOLVED, that the Diocesan Budget for 1953 be increased $2,000.00 for Juvenile Court Work under the Protestant Episcopal City Mission.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the tentative Budget for 1953 be recommended and approved as amended on vote was adopted. (Appendix E, page 92).

The Report of The Committee on Constitution and Canons was presented by title (Appendix O, page 304) by The Rev. Ralph E. Coonrad, who offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted:

RESOLVED, That Canon VII, Section II, Sub-section 1 be amended:

1. The Standing Committee shall determine, on or before the first of May each year, the amount needed for the support of the Epsicopate in the Diocese during the ensuing year. . . .

The Committee on Constitution and Canons recognized the Rev. G. W. Wickersham, who offered the following amendment to the Constitution:

That the words "Lay Persons" be substituted for the word "Laymen" in sentence one of Article IV of the Constitution of this Diocese.

The Resolution to Amend, on Motion was lost by a vote, Ayes 215, Noes 263.

The Special Order of the Day having arrived, the President requested The Rt. Rev. William P. Roberts to lead the Convention in Noon-day Prayers.

Bishop Hart announced that the Diocese will be visited by Bishop Remington for several weeks following the meeting of General Convention and that Bishop Remington will be open for engagements to address Services, Meetings and Conferences.

RESOLVED, That the Joint Committee on Urban Work be continued, with the power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

The Rev. Dr. Wm. N. Parker offered the following Resolutions which on Motion was adopted by a Vote of Ayes 249. Noes 106:

WHEREAS Canon 5, Section 1, of the General Convention, requires "a report of every parish and other congregation of this Church shall be prepared annually for the year ending December 31st, preceding, and it shall be sent not later than February 1st to the bishop of the diocese or missionary district. The preparation and delivery of this report shall be the joint duty of the rector and vestry, and in every other congregation the duty of the minister in charge thereof."

WHEREAS the preparation of this report involves very considerable time, thought and labor on the part of both rector and accounting warden, which must be given in January alone, one of the busiest months of the year for rectors and ministers;

AND WHEREAS it is extremely difficult to prepare and present this report by February 1st;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania request the General Convention that the time required by Canon 5 for presenting the annual reports of parishes and congregations be changed from February 1st to March 1st.

The Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel offered the following Resolution, which on Motion was adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

WHEREAS Bishop William P. Roberts, former Bishop of Shanghai, is now residing in this Diocese and has accepted Bishop Hart's invitation to assist him in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Convention here assembled goes on record of not only officially welcoming Bishop Roberts to this Diocese but also to express to him the deep gratitude and sincere delight that the Clergy and their congregations sense in having him with us and to offer to him our genuine affection and devotion.

The Report of The Registrar was presented by Title (Appendix K, page 282).

The Rev. George A. Trowbridge moved and it was duly seconded and carried that the Bishop of the Diocese appoint a member of the Convention to draw up a proper minute to be spread on the Minutes concerning the life and work of Mr. Samuel F. Houston. The Bishop appointed the Chancellor, Robert T. McCracken, Esq., for the above purpose.

Reverend George A. Trowbridge, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, offered a resolution of profound sorrow at the passing, on May 2nd, of Mr. Samuel Frederic Houston. The resolution was adopted by a rising vote, and the following minute was ordered to be entered in the Journal.

In the death of Samuel Frederic Houston, the Diocese of Pennsylvania has lost a churchman of deep convictions, sound judgement, tireless activity and unshakeable loyalty.

A native of Philadelphia, steeped in its loftiest traditions, educated in its institutions of learning, product of its financial and business life, Mr. Houston devoted his talents to the welfare and advancement of his City, his University, his Church and his fellow citizens.

One of the founders of the parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, the church edifice of which was donated by his family, Mr. Houston served that parish as Rector's Warden for the unparalleled period of sixty-three years, occupying the office at the time of his death. His interest, watchfulness and charm of personality contributed greatly, during that period, to the healthy and steady growth of the parish.

He attended his first Diocesan Convention as a deputy in the year 1897, and has been re-elected to that representation in every year since. He served as a lay deputy at ten General Conventions, including the one held in San Francisco in 1949, and would undoubtedly have been elected the present year, to attend the Convention in Boston, had he lived. Nor was there any limit to his practical usefulness to the Church. The extent of the support which he provided will never be known, for all of it was given quietly, and much of it unknown to anyone save his Bishop or his Rector.

This Convention, deprived of his inspiring presence and wise counsel, desires to presently record its deep sense of bereavement in the passing of Samuel Frederic Houston.

The Rev. Dr. Alfred M. Smith addressed the Convention concerning the need of employment for discharged prisoners.

Mr. Frederico F. Mauck addressed the Convention concerning The Conference Center.

The Rev. Frank Damrosch, Jr., offered the following Resolutions both of which were adopted:

RESOLVED, That in the event of no election on the present ballot for Members of the Executive Council, in accordance with Article VI the President of the Convention declare elected as Members of the Executive Council those nominees having the highest combined vote of both Orders on the Third Ballot.

RESOLVED, That in the event of no election of Clerical Member of the Standing Committee on the present ballot, that no further ballots be taken and that the Standing Committee be empowered to fill the vacancy.

The Rev. William Roulston McKean, Chairman of the Committee on The Dispatch of Business, offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the next Annual Convention begin on Monday, May 4, 1953 at 5 P.M., transact such business of the Convention up to and including Nominations from the floor as may transpire to be followed by a Diocesan Mass Meeting on Monday evening when the Annual Address of the Bishop shall be read, with adjourned Sessions on Tuesday, May 5, 1953.

RESOLVED, That the Holy Communion Service of the Convention shall be held at 9 A.M., on Tuesday, May 5, 1953.

RESOLVED, That 650 copies of the Journal be printed and distributed as usual.

RESOLVED, That the Committee on Arrangements be instructed to arrange for the employment of the Public Address System for the Convention of 1953.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of the Church of the Holy Trinity and Trinity Memorial Church for the use of their buildings for the meetings of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of $100 to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

RESOLVED, That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

RESOLVED, That the bills for the Luncheons and for the Installation of the Public Address System be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

ROBERT J. ADAMS, JR., All Saints, Rhawnhurst.

Recently I received a letter from one of our clergy thanking me for some little thing that I had done. In the note he was kind enough to say that I did it, not as a diocesan administrator but as a true father in God. That is, of course, what every Bishop longs to be. Forgive me if in my Convention Address I speak too much as an administrator. I feel that it is necessary to remind you of our plans for advancement in the diocese, remembering always that they are but the framework in which we seek to advance the work of the Kingdom.

I want to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Daniel A. Newhall, Chairman, the Vice-Chairmen, the members of the Advisory Committee and all those who assisted in the raising of the Diocesan Advancement Fund. The objective was $400,000.00. The total amount raised was $389,200.00. The amount of $125,000.00 for the Philadelphia Divinity School was over-subscribed, due to one large gift of $100,000.00 .I am very grateful for this interest in the Divinity School. The building is now in the process of erection. We hope to be able to use it sometime next year. The amount of $150,000.00 was placed in the objectives of the fund for Church Extension. $6,500.00 was given for the completion of the Chapel at Newtown Square; $22,000.00 for the building of the church at St. James's, Green Ridge and $55,000.00 for St. Andrew's, Somerton. $66,500.00 of undesignated gifts have been allocated to Church Extension by the Executive Council. This can be used for the development of the work in Bucks County or elsewhere as the Executive Council directs. The amount already designated for the Conference Center is $20,000.00. To this has been added $9,871.11 which had been contributed by Church Schools and others. To this will be added the undesignated pledges as they are paid. This will give the diocese a very good start toward the $125,000.00 which the Executive Council thinks is necessary to operate the Conference Center.

Many people think that we made a mistake in not employing a professional firm to handle the raising of this money. Perhaps we should have done so, but I want to express my own personal satisfaction in the way in which it was done. I am confident that the campaign has done a great deal to increase the interest of our lay people in the welfare of the entire diocese. I only hope that this Convention will decide not to let the matter drop but to continue the good work. We can do this in one or two ways:

(1) We can select a definite object or objects each year and devote all of our gifts for advanced work for that purpose. For example, St. Peter's, Broomall; the Church of the Atonement, Morton; St. Philip's, Oreland, St. Cyril's, Coatesville and new work in Bucks County offer real choices. The Executive Council could choose one or more of these places as our objectives for this coming year.

(2) Another way in which it could be done would be to have a large number of our communicants make annual contributions to the Advancement Fund on a yearly basis. This is done by a great many colleges and a great many other institutions and by a number of dioceses in our Church.

When I was a clergyman in the Diocese of Massachusetts, a number of people sent annual contributions to the Bishop to be used at his discretion. I would prefer for such a fund to be used by the Bishop, in consultation with the Executive Council, but it would enable us to take advantage of the opportunties at the time when they should be taken if we had a Revolving Fund which we could use to enable parishes or missions to build new churches or to extend their present facilities.

One of our Committees, in reporting to this Convention, states, "The period of greatest expansion in this diocese was in the latter half of the nineteenth century when 165 new churches were started. During the period from 1900 to 1952, there has been a slowing up in the formation of new work. More churches have been closed during the last 25 years than during any other similar period of time. The last ten years show that only two new churches were started while twelve churches were closed." We should give serious attention to this report.

The following churches have been closed:

St. Peter's Chapel, Glenside
St. Mary's, Manayunk
Chapel of the Transfiguration, South Philadelphia
Holy Comforter Memorial Chapel, South Philadelphia
The Hebrew Christian Synagogue

The following mergers have taken place:

Grace Church and The Incarnation with St. George's, Venango
St. Matthias, North Philadelphia with St. John's, West Oak Lane
St. Christopher's with the Annunciation, 12th and Diamond Streets

The Holy Spirit Mission with the Crucifixion, 8th and Bainbridge Sts.
St. Michael's and All Angels with Calvary, Northern Liberties
St. Mary's, Broad and South Streets with the Cathedral, Roxborough
All Saints, Moyamensing with Ascension, Rhawnhurst

The following have moved to new locations:

St. James's, 22nd and Walnut to Green Ridge, Pa.
St. Jude and the Nativity, 11th and Mt. Vernon Sts. to Plymouth Meeting, Pa.
St. Joseph's, Gladwyne to new location in Gladwyne and renamed St. Christopher's
Church of the Holy Apostles, South Phila. to Penn Wynne, Pa.

The two new churches are:

St. Peter's, Broomall
St. Philip-in-the-fields, Oreland

I would like to share with you two observations:

1. Most of these changes have been advisable in my judgment. For example, I share with you a sadness in seeing St. James's Church leave Twenty-second and Walnut Streets but I am convinced that Holy Trinity Church, St. Clement's and Trinity Memorial Church can adequately minister to this section of our city. We Episcopalians are accused of running away from the city to the suburbs but I would like to remind you that some of our central city parishes are growing in strength. Sunday before last I made my official visitation to St. Stephen's Church, Tenth Street above Chestnut. I noted that the attendance at their services during 1951 was almost double what it was ten years ago; their missionary apportionment of $7,000 is 100 percent higher than it was ten years ago. Their Community House had a $30,000 mortgage ten years ago. Today their entire property is free and clear of debt. I agree wholeheartedly with Dr. Price and his excellent Vestry that St. Stephen's Church is now facing the greatest opportunity in its history.

I cannot take the time now to say something about all the central city churches, the program of Christ Church, the Mother Church of the Diocese, and others. But I must say a word about St. John the Evangelist, Third and Reed Streets. Ten years ago they were being served by a retired Chaplain of the City Mission who received no salary. Today they are a fully self-supporting parish, with the Rev. Norman Farnlof as their rector. I want to commend the members of the Vestry and the leaders of their parish organizations for their energetic and efficient work. What they have done is significant and points the way to a solution of our urban and industrial problem.

2. My second observation is that a considerable amount of new work has been started and there has been a surprising number of additions and improvements to our church property—new churches, new parish houses, new rectories, etc. I do not make any claim that we are starting new work as fast as we should. I have already pointed out several places where I wish that we could do something today, but I am encouraged by the increasing interest of our lay people in meeting the opportunities right at our doorstep.

At our Convention last year a layman introduced a resolution that the Diocese accept as a minimum objective four thousand (4000) confirmations for 1952. The number for 1951 was 2,745. I am not sure that the passing of resolutions by Diocesan Convention means much but I hope that this resolution means that the laymen are determined to take an active part in securing every Confirmation Class. I also hope that we will not be misled by numbers. I want to thank the Vestries who have cooperated in a study of what has happened to those confirmed in the past ten years. The study shows that many drift away because the congregation does not do everything in its power to follow up all those confirmed, especially during the first three years after their confirmation. One Committee reported to me that one-fourth of those confirmed in their parish in 1950 became inactive during the first year after their confirmation. I would much prefer to confirm a small number who have been thoroughly prepared and who really mean business than a large number, one-fourth of whom drift away during the first succeeding year.

The Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions will propose to the Convention an increase, effective July first, in the salaries of Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen whose stipends are paid, in whole or part, by the Diocese. I hope that Vestries will give like attention to this matter in regard to the salaries of Rectors of self-supporting Parishes. It is very difficult for some of our clergy to live on their present salaries and, naturally, they do not want to take up the matter with their Vestries. The Vestries should take the initiative. I suggest that this be done in preparation for the Every Member Canvass. If the Vestries feel that the Rector's salary should be increased, they should put the amount of the increase in the budget and place the matter squarely and frankly before the congregation. If the congregation cannot give an increase, the Rector will at least know that the Vestry has not forgotten him and are earnestly concerned about the matter.

I should like to call attention to the various Summer Conferences. Our own Youth Conference which will be held at Haverford College, June 22nd to the 28th. I hope that the Vestries will see to it that their parishes are represented by one or more delegates to this Conference. I can testify that such Conferences pay large dividends in the interest of the young people. The Vestry should also be selecting leaders to attend the Advanced Conferences at Hood, Wellesley and other places. Full information in regard to these Summer Conferences can be secured from our Department of Christian Education at the Church House.

On March 11th one of our Chaplains, the Rev. Robert M. Crane, was killed while on active duty in Korea. He had just finished conducting a service at the front when he was hit by a shell and killed. Chaplain Crane was due to be discharged from the military service in July and had planned to be a missionary in Japan. The men of his regiment, in appreciation of his fine service, raised a fund of $5,000 and sent it to Bishop Nakamura of Tohoku to help build a church in Sendai as a memorial to Chaplain Crane. This is not only a tribute to a priest of our Church who served his Church and country so well but it is also a tribute to our men in the Armed Forces. Surely we have here an example of unselfish and sacrificial service which should stimulate us all to do more for the extension of Our Lord's Kingdom.

In addressing the Diocesan Convention in 1813 Bishop White said,

"Agreeably to a measure adopted by the last Convention, sermons have been preached for the creating of an Episcopal Fund in the churches within the city, and in other churches within the state. The sums collected amount to seven hundred and seventy-one dollars sixty-two cents. It remains to give to these, and to future collections, such a direction as to accomplish the intended object. Your present bishop, sensible of the inconvenience to the church, of the union of the charge of the Episcopacy, with that of a parochial cure, but aware that the system must continue during the remainder of his life, anticipates with pleasure the fruits of a design, which contemplates the severance, at some future time, of the two characters sustained by him."

One hundred and thirty-nine years later I would like to follow in the footsteps of my distinguished predecessor and say a word about the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate. A prominent layman told me recently that this was a very dull subject. He did not see any reason why the parishes should be relieved of paying their full share for the expenses of the Episcopate. I appreciate the spirit in which the parishes and missions pay their assessments but I see no reason why members of the diocese should not from time to time, especially in their wills, remember the Endowment Fund for the Episcopate. I am convinced that an adequate Endowment Fund would strengthen the diocese and I am grateful for what Mr. Clarence M. Brown and his Committee have been able to do in the last five years. It has been a tremendous help to me to have Bishop Roberts to assist with confirmations and ordinations. He receives part of his salary for being Vicar of the House of Prayer and part for assisting me. The latter part is taken out of a Fund generously contributed by two or three laymen to pay the salary of a second Suffragan Bishop. We are fortunate in having Bishop Roberts with us and I hope that we can keep him. I realize that the income from Endowment Funds are not what they used to be and our Committee has purposely refrained from an intensive campaign but I hope that their efforts will continue to bear fruit and thus help to insure proper Episcopal supervision of this great diocese.

Pursuant to your request at our 1951 Convention, I have given one-tenth of all offerings received at visits for confirmation to the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate. The sum of $575.68 has thus been added to this Fund. I would be willing to continue this plan if you approve and if the rectors would publicize this fact at the time one of the bishops comes to your parish for Confirmation.

Many of our parishes and institutions have received bequests during the past year. A hasty glance through the Church News shows some 24 bequests amounting to $2,266,200. The largest bequest was one of about a million dollars to All Saints Hospital, Chestnut Hill in the will of Captain T. Munroe Dobbins. Captain Dobbins left a like bequest to the Episcopal Hospital which is an independent institution but still receives the care and attention of many people in this diocese. This is only a partial list as all bequests have not been reported. I have been told of one bequest of $100,000 to a parish which is not in the above list and there are doubtless many others.

I continue to search for a better method of communication in the diocese. I think that our diocesan paper is one of the best in the whole church and we are eager to have you make constructive suggestions as to how it can be improved. In my conferences with vestries, I am sometimes asked why the Church News is not sent to every Vestryman. On my official visitation to one of our parishes a layman greeted me enthusiastically with the comment, "I read your message every month in the Church News and I like it." This made me feel very good and when I had a chance I said to the rector, "Who is that splendid layman?" The rector replied, "Pay no attention to anything that he says to you. He is not bright mentally." Whether or not you read my message each month in the Church News, I want you to know that we are anxious to have you informed about all diocesan plans.

The National Council has two Leadership Training Teams which have visited a number of dioceses to explain the whole plan worked out by Dr. Heuss and his associates for the development of our parishes. One of these teams plans to spend January and February in this diocese. We are better prepared than some dioceses. In April 1951 we had about one hundred thirty of our clergy at a Conference at Buck Hill Falls. Several of our clergy have attended sessions at the College of Preachers in Washington. A few of our laymen attended a conference at Mt. Pocono last June. One of the laymen said to me on his return, "I enjoyed being there and I learned a great deal but instead of a half dozen from this diocese, we should have had there two or three hundred of our ablest men and women." This statement points up our problem. The whole life of the parish is involved and, therefore, these teams want to meet with Vestrymen and other leaders in our parishes. I ask all delegates to keep their parishes informed about the conferences to be conducted by the Leadership Training Team in this diocese. We want the Church School teachers and officers to take part in the conferences but we want the lay leaders of our parishes and missions whether or not they have anything to do with the Church School.

The Bryan Green Mission did much for the diocese. Our people worked and worshipped together happily and in great numbers. A number who have been Confirmed have told me that their being Confirmed was due to the Mission. I want to express again my gratitude to Canon Green and the Rev. Mr. Frankham for coming to us to conduct the Mission; to Bishop Armstrong, Mr. Blair Lee and their very able committee who worked out so splendidly all the plans for the Mission and to all in the diocese who helped to make the Mission a blessing to us all. Canon Green brought it home to us with great clearness that the Christian message is not an exhortation to be good but a setting forth of the basic facts of our salvation. Many of our people have been studying "The Faith of the Church" with a new interest and zeal.

One of the things which the Mission made vivid to me is that something tragic happens to the word power of the Christian gospel if you try to divorce it from the Christian community. The basic problem of communication is not solved by speech-evangelism alone but by relationships. The language of words alone, at best, is a confusing and unpredictable medium of communication. We gain our most important learning almost apart from the language of words. We acquire most of our habits and attitudes and consequent character through relationships. There never was a time when the Church needed to be cherished and emphasized more vigorously than right now. It is neither theologically sound, nor practically useful, to suppose that the Christian faith can be taught, recovered or maintained apart from the Christian Church.

Jesus' teaching implies a community completely committed to the doing the Will of God. The Christian religion is not my religion or some other persons's. It is the faith and practice of the Christian community. Christianity began with the Church idea. Christianity has not succeeded in producing the community but we must never lose sight of the fact that the Church is not merely a group of sects. The religion of Christ cannot function permanently and effectively in a medley of sects. The Church must be one with the community which spreads far beyond all national borders to the whole earth. Each parish should strive to make of itself a real community united within itself for the spread of Christ's Kingdom and devoted to the conquest of souls, a fellowship eager to find new ways of bringing Christ to those who know Him not. Each congregation is a replica of the whole Church on earth and the Church is the mystical body of Christ. The purpose of any parish should be to declare the Atonement. A devoted layman was once asked by a skeptical friend, "What do you mean by eternal life?" The layman replied, "The nearest thing to it that I know of is the life of my parish." This statement may shock us because the life of our own parish does not measure up to this standard but that layman was certainly pointing to what Christ intended the Church to be.

A well known educator has said that there are three agencies of Christian education, the organized class, the home and the parish and, he adds, "Far and away the most crucial agency of the three is the quality of life in the parish." To be a Christian means to be baptized into a corporate Body, a holy people of God living a new kind of life. Christian parishes are where men are finding deep friendship, personal responsibility, wholeness of work and worship, transcendence of class and race divisions and an experience of community living where Christ is the center.

Life must be lived around some center and God has laid the foundation upon earth of a new and wonderful community, with Christ at the center. The life of man today is broken and confused because he seeks to build life around some other center. At the center of life he seeks to put the things which he thinks that he owns rather than the Lord of all good life who owns him.

In a metropolitan diocese we can see clearly that the part to be played by the Church is both central and vital. At the heart of this great city there must be a vital Christian community. Sometimes we hear people say that God made the country and man made the city. In certain ways this is true but it certainly does not mean that God is present more in the wide open spaces than He is "where cross the crowded ways of life." Human nature and human life are more full of God than the phenomena of the material world. "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men and He shall dwell with them." Thousands around us have not yet committed their lives to the risen and ascended Christ. That is basic and only in the Christian community can the Christ-convert relationship achieve its full significance. God is calling us to show the Christian community in actual operation.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Guide and protect, we beseech Thee, our diocese. Grant us true repentance, and take away the offences of our people, that with clean hands and pure hearts, we may go forward in Thy name. Save us from pettiness and indifference. Endue our bishops and other clergy with courage and wisdom. Stretch forth Thine almighty arm to strengthen our vestries that they may serve with vision and determination. Bless those who labor in parish and diocese for the spread of Thy kingdom. And make us all to be of one heart and one mind in Thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

C. Brewster Rhoads, Esq.
The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Shreiner
The Rev. Dr. Stanley R. West

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. DUBARRY, Secretary

APPENDIX H

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE FOR THE YEAR 1951

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, for the year 1951, audited by Charles S. Rockey & Co., certified public accountants, is submitted herewith.

Whether because of the increased missionary budget and the absence of such special appeals as the Presiding Bishop's Fund or the general effect of inflation and rising taxes, the accepted proportionate share was only slightly oversubscribed, the figure being $2,171.03 as against $17,176.10 in 1950. It is hoped that this does not indicate an adverse trend for 1952.

As before, these results would not have been accomplished without the staunch support of the 94 parishes and missions which paid more than their acceptances. To them the whole Diocese owes a debt of gratitude. May those who failed to come up to their promises profit by the example of the others.

Forward work was provided for out of lapsed balances and carry-overs of previous years. Further appropriations were made for the completion of the rectory, Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, mentioned in the 1950 report, for furniture at St. Albans Mission, Newtown Square, and $12,000 was appropriated to the building fund for St. Philips-in-the-Fields, Oreland.

The Church House staff continued their loyal support. Mention should be made of their willing absorption of the considerable additional financial work incident to the activities of the Bryan Green Mission. Too few people realize the importance of the dedicated efforts of the group under the able supervision of Mr. Leech.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON
Treasurer

WILLIAM G. FOULKE
Assistant Treasurer

APPENDIX I

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, PROPERTY AND PROMOTION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1951 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property and the Department of Promotion are sub departments under Finance. Their Reports are separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chair and its report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1951, have been paid in full. The Diocese had not been able to accept the $324,943 assigned by the National Council. The Executive Council approved $300,000 for the National Council. The Budget needed at least $11,000 over and above the accepted proportionate share to balance the 1951 budget.

The Department recommended to the Executive Council that the salaries of the Vicars under the Diocesan Budget of 1952 be increased to meet the action of the Diocesan Convention.

It is with deep regret that the Department of Finance announces the passing of a most faithful member Edward C. Bendere who died October 26, 1951.

The Chairman expresses his appreciation to the officers of the Diocese and the members of the Department for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

EDWARD B. CLAY,
Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

During 1951 the Financial records of 12 Churches were examined by Certified Public Accountants that did not have such an examination the previous year. At the date of writing this report, two additional Churches have signified their intention of having an examination that did not have such an audit in 1951. The overall total of 67% or 138 Parishes and Missions does not increase, but generally speaking accounting wardens and treasurers are showing a splendid spirit of cooperation and helpfulness in both bonding of officers, and audits. It is hoped that 1952 will show a substantial increases in numbers of churches fully complying with Diocesan Canon XVI.

This Committee is sending a general questionnaire to all parishes and missions this year and responses have started coming in at a satisfactory rate.

Due to a disastrous fire loss suffered by one of our parishes, particular reference is made to question No. 5 asking details of appraisal, by whom made, amount of insurance carried on each building and an expression of opinion as to whether the vestry feels that adequate insurance is being carried. This would apply of course to both fire and extended coverage as well.

The 4th page of the annual Parochial report under the caption PROPERTY, ESTIMATED VALUE AND INSURED FOR should disclose this information, but does not, in several instances.

It is quite possible to obtain accurate answers to all of these questions from the agent or insurance carrier. The Church Fire Corporation makes an annual practice of advising their insured of the proper increases necessary as building costs advance. In addition, where insufficient insurance is detected in the Parochial Report we are able to call the attention of the Officers of the Parish to that fact.

Messrs. Charles S. Rockey and Company have again extended to the Diocese their low cost audit plan, and the forms for acceptance this year are now in preparation to be sent out.

The Financial Secretary, Mr. Isaac E. Leech will be glad to answer any questions relative to this C.P.A. examination or meet with vestries or parish committees at their convenience.

EDWARD B. CLAY, Chairman
Committee on Financial Safeguards

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During 1951 we sold the former Mackay-Smith Memorial House on Penn Road at Wynnewood and transferred the Memorial Plaque to the new Memorial House on Roberts Road, Bryn Mawr.

We also sold the property of the Transfiguration Mission at 7th and Bigler Streets, Philadelphia. We started negotiations for the purchase of two acres of land near Roelofs Station in Bucks County but have not yet gotten title.

We also have purchased a property at 3419 N. Howard Street, Philadelphia, to be used as a Rectory for St. Ambrose Mission and are now making alterations and repairs.

Our Committee of Architects have approved plans for a new Rectory at Atonement, Morton, and for new Churches for St. James' Green Ridge and for St. Jude and The Nativity at Plymouth Meeting. Preliminary sketches for a new Church for St. Andrew's, Somerton, have been examined and the relocation of the building tentatively agreed upon pending a decision by the Bureau of Highways as to the widening of certain streets in the vicinity.

Major repairs have been supervised at Trinity Mission, Royersford; Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills; St. Titus Mission, Elmwood; House of Prayer, Branchtown, and St. Elisabeth's Mission, Philadelphia, and many minor repairs throughout the Diocese in cooperaton with the Department of Missions and the Deans of the Convocations.

We have entered into a contract with the Philadelphia Electric Company for the purchase of steam for heating the Church House which required complete alterations to our heating system: this new plan should result in a large saving of expense to the Diocese over a period of years.

RONALD J. MCCARTHY, Chairman
Property Department

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The director of the Department of Publicity, the Rev. Henry S. Paynter, has relinquished his parochial responsibilities, and now devotes his entire time to the Department and to THE CHURCH NEWS. This adjustment has been worked out without any increase in the appropriation to this Department.

In the year 1951 the Bryan Green Mission overshadowed all other interests in Diocesan activities. So far as publicity was concerned, this emphasis began very early in the year, and continued with increasing demands until the last days of the Mission.

The work of publicity in connection with the Bryan Green Mission, was cared for by special temporary personnel beginning early in the autumn. However, this Department found the Mission an opportunity for additional service. All bulletins and releases to the secular and church press were carefully checked in our office for accuracy of expression, titles, etc.

The vast amount of printed matter used in connection with the Mission was prepared and ordered by the Department of Publicity, and this Department was also responsible for the distribution of Mission literature. Much of the printing was begun in August, and some of the circulars were prepared at the request of Bryan Green during the last days of the Mission in December.

THE CHURCH NEWS also felt the impact of the Mission through most of this year. Many extra pages of reading matter and illustrations were devoted to the Mission, beginning in the spring and expanding in the autumn issues.

In addition to our own parishes and missions, there was a wide coverage of congregations of other Christian bodies to whom were sent posters, attendance scrolls, pamphlets, circulars, stickers, etc. Bryan Green said the preparation for this Mission through publicity was magnificently organized.

This particular project, which has been a major part of the Department's work throughout the past year, did not seriously interfere with the many routine details which are always with us.

THE CHURCH NEWS continues to increase in interest and content, and compares very favorably with similar magazines published in other diocese of the Church.

Each year the number of parishes and missions sending in group subscription lists is gradually increasing. Our aim is to have THE CHURCH NEWS in the homes of all the families of the Church within the Diocese of Pennsylvania. We solicit the help of the clergy, vestrymen, and other local leaders in our effort to achieve this goal.

R. MARSHALL TRUITT, Chairman,

Department of Publicity

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

In order to secure the advice and active cooperation of more laymen the Field Department was reorganized at a meeting in the Church House on June 21, 1951. Mr. Frederic C. Wheeler was appointed Co-chairman. The Deans of the Convocations were asked to nominate two laymen and a clergyman and these, with certain former members, make the membership of the Department include eight clergymen, fourteen laymen, together with three ex-officio clerical members and three ex-officio lay members.

At the June meeting plans were discussed and formulated for the Laymen's Training Conference to be held at Spring Mountain House, Schwenksville, Pa. from Saturday morning, September 22nd until the following afternoon. It was decided to limit the number of men to not more than thirty, unless there should be a demand from more Parishes and Missions than had made such requests in 1950.

Twelve Clergymen, including Bishop, and twenty-nine laymen were present at the Conference. Mr. Wheeler, who had received leadership training at Seabury House, September 7, 8, and 9 presented the program of the National Church. A film, graphically illustrating the comprehensive work of the Church's work, at home and abroad, was shown. Mr. Clarence E. Hall, a member of the Department, reviewed the Diocesan program. Four transparencies were exhibited: A sectional map of the areas in Bucks County being developed by several corporations; a new Mission, a new Parish House and an aerial picture of the Flagg Estate, the site of the proposed Diocesan Center.

The Department had a special page printed on the Every Member Canvass leaflet which had been prepared by the National Council with the caption, "My Pledge is my Gift to Christ and His Church." A map of the entire Diocese 2181 square miles—showed the Convocational boundaries, together with the locations of all Parishes and Missions in the Convocations of Chester, Germantown and Norristown, a listing of the number of Parishes and Missions in all Convocations. The Diocesan Budget was also printed and, on the basis of requests for the leaflets a sufficient number was printed for Diocesan-wide use.

The Conference was marked by frank discussions of the general work in the Diocese and of the Budget and of ways and means to raise it. The interest shown was genuine and the men left the Conference with a determination to present it to every Parish and Mission which would invite a speaker.

The cooperation of the Diocesan clergy was not too encouraging. Only about seventy Parishes and Missions—out of 205—requested a speaker for a Sunday Service or for any other type of meeting. About 50,000 Pledge Cards were distributed and 31,000 leaflets. As some Parishes and Missions never called for the leaflets which they had ordered there was an unnecessary expense for printing.

After the period for the Diocesan Every Member Canvass was concluded, a meeting of the Department was held in the Church House and those speakers, trained at Schwenksville, who were not members of the Department, were also invited. The meeting strongly recommended the preliminary preparation for the 1952 Canvass be completed before the first of June, that all material be promptly requisitioned, that more Parishes and Missions be urged to secure speakers and to make use of the material suggested. It was also the sense of the meeting that more men should be trained each year, and that a larger number of young men be enrolled and that the addresses should be more informal, with less reliance on the reading of a prepared speech. Tentative plans are being made for another Conference at Schwenksville on September 27th and 28th.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION
REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

It would be too bad if we limited our concept of the function of the Department of Missions to the administration of mission churches and the establishment of new mission churches within the limits of the Diocese. It would seem desirable that we remember that the mission of the Church is evangelism, the bringing of the whole impact of the Christian life, both individually and communally, to bear upon the life of the world. Based on such thinking, the Department of Missions quite rightly took cognizance of and administered the preparation for and made arrangements for the Bryan Green Mission. In the same way, the joint committee of the Department of Missions and the Department of Christian Social Relations is studying the needs and peculiar problems of the city church in the light of moving populations in order that whatever needful changes in the presentation of the Gospel and administering to the needs of the community may be so adequately met that God's love for His children as shown through His Church by means of the Holy Spirit may be made both winning and apparent to all people everywhere beginning here.

We must remember that our concern is with all of life; that the Chuch is concerned with the social, economical, political, and spiritual needs and possibilities of God's creatures in God's creation.

And so with such a concept of missions, we append incidental accounting of some of the administrative acts of the Department of Missions.

I cannot close without asking your prayers that we may all be guided by God's Holy Spirit in responding to the opportunity presented to us in the mass migration of peoples into the upper Bucks County area of our Diocese.

A vicar was appointed as of June 15 for Epiphany Mission, Royersford; namely, the Rev. Marshall Frye. Assistance was given for repairs to Epiphany Mission, Royersford and St. Paul's Edgely. Assistance was given to St. Elisabeth's Church for repairs to the roof, pointing bricks, and repairing exterior woodwork—money from St. Elisabeth's Fund.

The Bishop appointed a vicar on June 15 to St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, the Rev. F. Lee Richards. The Rev. Mr. Hyde moved from St. John's, Concord to be rector of Grace Church, Hulmeville and vicar of All Saints', Fallsington.

The rectory was completed at Quakertown.

The Rev. Edward W. Battin was appointed vicar of St. James', Green Ridge and rector of St. John's, Concord on June 15.

The Department recommended to the Executive Council through the Department of Finance that vicars' salaries be increased 10%. The Deans were authorized to determine the share to be paid by the mission and the share to be paid by the Diocese.

A joint committee was appointed from the Department of Missions and the Department of Christian Social Relations for the purpose of studying the needs of an area in which there was a changing population in order to make recommendations to the Bishop and the vestries of parishes for the purpose of strengthening the Church in such areas.

The Rev. Warren H. Davis, Jr. was appointed chaplain of the Seamen's Church Institute.

A grant was made to Grace Church, Hulmeville for a heating plant at the rectory. A grant was made to St. Andrew's, West Manayunk for termite extermination. A grant was made to St. Titus' Mission for a new roof. A grant was made to the House of Prayer, Philadelphia for complete renovation of the rectory.

The Rev. Mr. Witmer was appointed for supply work at the Cathedral.

The work at St. Barnabas', Kensington was placed under the oversight of the vicar of St. George's, Richmond: the Rev. G. Crofton Thompson.

The Department of Missions approved a sum not to exceed $55,000. to erect a new church building for St. Andrew-in-the-Fields, Somerton.

It was recommended to the Executive Council that a site for future development near Roelof's be purchased not to exceed $3,000.

$22,000. was allocated to assist St. James', Green Ridge build a church of which $5,000. is to be paid back to the Diocese in ten years.

A grant was made to St. Barnabas', Kensington for extraordinary plumbing repairs in the rectory.

A grant was made to St. Mary's, Chester for wiring, roofing, and gas water heater.

A grant was made to Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills for extensive water proofing and repairs to the foundation.

The Rev. Guilbert C. Braddock was appointed vicar of All Souls' Mission for the Deaf.

The Rev. Monroe DeVan was ordained priest and transferred to the Diocese of Western North Carolina. Mr. Charles Miller is now in charge of the work at St. Paul's, North Penn.

Joint committees from St. Mary's Chapel and St. Philip's Mission in South Philadelphia have met looking toward a possible merger of their work. The measure is still under consideration.

At the November meeting of the Department of Missions, Mr. William Fell and the Rev. Dr. Powell of the Philadelphia Council of Churches reported to the Department on the research work done by the Council in the location of church sites and the establishment of new parishes.

A grant was made to St. Anne's, Willow Grove for pointing, water proofing, etc. to repair the East wall of the church.

A grant was made to St. Martin's, Oak Lane for repairing the sidewalk on 10th Street.

A grant of $654.41 was made to St. Bartholomew's Mission, Philadelphia to liquidate 1951 indebtedness of that mission.

The Department of Missions approved a grant of $60,000. for the purchase of a rectory and the building of a church in Fairless Hills, Bucks County. The chairman of the Department has been in communication with the Levitt Corporation looking toward an allocation of a site on which a mission will be erected in Levittown. The Rev. Mr. Hyde has been calling upon the residents in Fairless Hills and the Rev. Mr. Powell is keeping in touch with the development in Levittown.

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The year 1951 saw no new work initiated and few changes in the Convocation, but a good deal of real progress. We do not at the moment have the tremendous opportunities opening up before us that the Morrisville development presents to the Convocation of Germantown, but there is a continued trend to the suburbs from town, and now even our most distant missions are being affected by it. Little country towns which have been rather stationary in population for a long time, are now beginning to grow; and it may be that in the near future that several of these missions will be self-supporting. It is also conceivable that in years to come that they may be the strong parishes of the Diocese.

The Chapel of the Holy Apostles at Penn Wynne is now completed and a very active work is being carried on there. This is a chapel of the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator, but being situated within the convocational limits, is of interest to us. The mother church has already started a campaign to complete the building project, so that within five years they may have a church. The present building will then be used as the parish house.

Saint Alban's, Newtown Square have also moved into their new building, and the Vicar reports a great increase in interest among the people of the neighborhood since an adequate place for worship has been provided. It seems to bear out the theory that until a decently appointed church exists that most people's interest will be confined to sending their children to the church school. It is hard to create an esprit de corps sufficient to get people to church when conditions are not right. It is too easy to drive to a neighboring church where they are.

This situation also exists at Saint James' Green Ridge where the congregation are worshipping in a converted house with folding chairs for pews. The church school there is overcrowded, but the congregation on Sundays is very small. We are now engaged in building a church there which should show the same results that we have found at Saint Albans. The foundations have been dug and the walls are going up as this report is written. If they are not held up for lack of material, this should be completed by next Fall.

Saint John's Concord is using the new parish house although it is not complete. They have heat and light in it, but to date there is only a cement floor and no kitchen equipment. They hope to finish it as soon as possible. The Rev. Edward W. Battin has charge of both of these churches.

The congregation at Saint Andrew's, West Vincent have redecorated the interior of the church at their own expense, aided in part by the income from a small trust fund which exists for the benefit of that mission. They have restored the doors to the old pews and have replaced the altar furniture with some in keeping with the architecture of the church. Before a priest is put in charge of this mission there must be a place for him to live, and space provided for a church school. It is hoped to acquire ground adjacent to the church for a future building, and for an extension to the churchyard. Mr. Kenneth Werner, a middler at the Divinity School is going there every Sunday to the complete satisfaction of the congregation.

Saint Peter's Broomall is one of the missions which is feeling the effect of the rapid development of the West Chester Pike, and they are already faced with the necessity of expansion. As a starter, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation have promised them two thousand dollars a year for two years. The congregation are now considering what they can do towards raising the balance.

Something must be done very soon for Saint Cyril's, Coatesville. A small but very faithful congregation are worshipping in a building which is neither a credit to the Church or an inducement to others to join them. This building might be moved back on the lot if a church were built in its place and used as a parish house, but as a church it leaves a great deal to be desired. The Convocation directed the Dean to appoint a committee to study this situation and to report back at the next meeting on what should be done.

Besides pledging themselves to raise two thousand dollars a year for two years for Saint Peter's, Broomall, the Woman's Auxiliary have also agreed to raise five hundred dollars each year to be held as an emergency fund for repairs on mission properties, particularly on rectories. Very frequently, before a new man moves in, a good deal needs to be done to a house, and if the mission has been for some time without a priest, they have no reserves to draw on for repairs. On the other hand, some emergency like the need of a new furnace, could be assisted by this fund.

When one speaks of the Convocation of Chester, one thinks first of all of the great work done by the Woman's Auxiliary over a long period of years. No other Convocation can match it in the numbers who go to the meetings twice a year, or in the amount of money which they enthusiastically give for work within the Convocation. The programs at their meetings have always been interesting, but it seems as though they had been especially so in the last year. The only drawback to their enthusiasm is that the meetings are too large to be held in any of the missions themselves. Only the larger churches of the Convocation can hold them.

RICHARD T. LYFORD,

Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester held two meetings during the past year, in October and May.

The Spring Meeting took place at the Church of St. John the Evangelist in Lansdowne, where we were given a most hearty welcome. The principal speaker was Mrs. Donald Roberts who, with her husband, has been teaching for some years at St. John's University in Shanghai. She told us of the sad effects of Communist infiltration upon education and Christianity in China.

It was voted at this meeting to raise $5000.00 over a period of two years. $4000.00 will go to St. Peter's, Broomall, and the remainder to a fund for emergency needs in the Convocation.

At the invitation of Dean Lyford, the October meeting was held at St. Asaph's Church in Bala. The Woman's Auxiliary put on a panel in the morning, simulating a Parish Auxiliary Executive Meeting preparing for the winter's work. Bishop Louis Melcher from Central Brazil gave us a vivid picture of his work among the poverty stricken people in Brazil. The Rev. Vernon Matthews, Vicar of St. Peter's, Broomall told of the immediate need for more space in the Church and Sunday School, and of the great opportunity there which our Church most not lose. Our present objective is to raise money for this purpose.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The rapid growth in the Northeast sections of Philadelphia and in lower Bucks County has continued at an accelerating rate during the past year; and your Diocese through the Germantown Convocation has both successfully kept itself informed of future developments, as well as kept pace through working with existing Parishes and Missions and planning new sites for places of worship.

At the Spring meeting in 1951, Bishop Hart announced that Bishop Roberts of Shanghai would become Vicar of House of Prayer in addition to administering Confirmation throughout the Diocese. He is now doing so, and the life of that Parish and the whole Diocese has thereby been greatly enriched. At the same meeting Dean Wood introduced the Rev. E. Clarendon Hyde, the new Vicar of Grace, Hulmeville and All Saint's, Fallsington. In addition to supplying the much needed leadership for these two Churches so strategically located in the midst of Bucks County growth, The Rev. Mr. Hyde has done considerable calling in the Danhearst Corp.'s town, Fairless Hills. The Dean also introduced the Rev. Lee Richards, the new Deacon in Charge of St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton. During the year he was elevated to the Priesthood. Under his direction, plans for the erection of a new Church are going ahead apace. In the meantime, the Laymen are ably helping him to carry forward the growth of the Church School which they began. It continues to meet in the Church and in all available space in neighboring homes.

During the Summer, the Executive Committee made its second annual inspection tour of the Convocation to familiarize itself with the growth in its different portions.

The Fall meeting began with a Celebration of the Holy Communion in the newly enlarged and refurnished building of Trinity, Solebury. The appearance of the Church, and the other buildings and grounds gives mute evidence of the greatly strengthened work of our Church here under the Ministry of the Rev. Walter Malone.

At this meeting, we recommended to the Department of Missions that the site offered by the Danhearst Corp. in Fairless Hills be accepted, and work there begun as soon as possible. The Executive Committee was instructed to investigate the possibilities of new work in Levittown—between Morrisville and Bristol— immediately. Between this meeting and the Winter meeting, the Very Rev. Edmund B. Wood, Dean, was stricken and is temporarily unable to act in his capacity. The Convocation has him continually in their individual and parochial prayers.

At the Winter meeting at the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, Bishop Hart suggested that the Convocation appoint Bishop Armstrong the Acting Dean. This was done immediately, and Dean Wood became the "only Dean in captivity with one Bishop as one of his Vicars, and another to act for him during his illness." At this meeting, Mr. Robert Warwick of the Danhearst Corp. gave an interesting illustrated talk on Fairless Hills. The Acting Dean told Convocation that 72 different Denominations had requested land on which to build Churches in Fairless Hills. Consequently, its developer, John Galbreath, gladly accepted the offer of the Strategy Committee—an affiliate of the Philadelphia Council of Churches—to arbitrate the matter. The Strategy Committee is made up of member Denominations which join together to survey areas and decide which Denomination shall build in which spot. Our Church, while not a member, sits in at the meetings. Bishop Armstrong advised that he felt it would be unwise to press the Danhearst Corp. for their promised site in view of the action of the Strategy Committee. Instead, he recommended that we follow along with the Committee, in the meantime working for the establishment of a Comity Commission—similar to the Strategy Committee, but without its decisions being binding on its members. The Convocation so recommended by resolution to the Bishop and Executive Council of the Diocese. Copies of the resolution were sent to the several Deans.

The Acting Dean stated that The Rev. Stanley A. Powell has been, in addition to carrying forward the work at Christ Church, Eddington and St. Paul's, Edgely, keeping him posted on developments at Levittown. At this meeting the Convocation unanimously recommended to the Bishop and Executive Council the immediate purchase of a Rectory in Levittown.

Work at St. Philip's, New Hope, continues to grow under the Rev. Mr. Malone. Their Church building was thought by many who saw it at the Fall meeting to be one of the most attractive small Churches in the Church. It has been refurbished by the men and women of the congregation. The Church of the Incarnation in Morrisville will leave the Mission-Fold of the Convocation if its petition for Parish status is accepted by the May, 1952 Convention.

Many thanks to Mrs. Henry Cocker and her Officers and the Ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Germantown for their continued splendid help. And to the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd for the use of their grounds for the annual Garden Day.

Faithfully,

THE RT. REV. J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG,

Acting Dean for

EDMUND B. WOOD, Dean

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

Educational Day

The January 16, 1951 meeting was held at St. Mark's Church, Frankford, and featured:

(a) Symposium—"The Near East"

(b) "The Church's Stand on United Nations"

Speaker—Mrs. C. Leland Harrison

(c) "Again Pioneers" (Film)

The program was planned by Mrs. Fred Rodgers, Educational Chairman.

Devotional Day

A departure from previous years was the "Quiet Day" on Tuesday, March 13, 1951 at St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough. Conductor—The Rev. Edmund B. Wood, Dean of Germantown Convocation.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting was held at Christ Church and St.

Michael's, on Wednesday, May 23, 1951, with Bishop Armstrong, Mrs. Victor Perrin and Mr. Loring Dam emphasizing the Bryan Green Mission.

Garden Day

"Garden Day" was held at Good Shepherd (Memorial) Church, on Tuesday, June 5, 1951. We are most grateful to Mrs. Edmund B. Wood, Chairman and to everyone who contributed to its success. Net proceeds amounted to $850.97.

Fall Meeting

A joint meeting of the Convocation was held at Trinity Church, Solebury, on Tuesday, October 30, 1951.

Enthusiastic progress of the work being accomplished at St. Paul's, Edgely and at St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, was reported by the Rev. Stanley A. Powell and the Rev. Lee Richards respectively. Mr. Powell emphasized the potentialities for service as a result of the proposed industrial expansion planned in his particular area. Mr. Richards spoke of the progressive developments in connection with his Church in Somerton and commended the laity for their work.

The days ahead are challenging. We are so very grateful to you for your active interest and for supporting our program.

Respectfully submitted,

ARDELLA F. COCKER

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

For about twenty years, Epiphany Mission, Royersford, was under the supervision of the Rectors of St. Peter's Church, Phoenixville; a faithful parishioner of Epiphany, Mr. Edward C. Kaltenbach, served as layreader. But toward the end of June 1951, the Bishop appointed as Vicar the Rev. J. Marshall Frye, who moved into the vicarage next door to the Church early in the fall.

The people of the Mission have been much cheered by the arrival of the Vicar, the congregations as well as the Sunday School have shown signs of growth, and the income is decidedly larger. It will be a long hard pull ahead; but a new start has been made and there are many signs of encouragement for the future.

The most serious problem facing the Mission is the conditions of the walls of the Church and also of the vicarage. There were thousands of tiny particles of iron in the sand which was used in making the mortar when the buildings were erected. These iron particles have disintegrated; the mortar is crumbling; the stones are slipping. It is essential that very soon the Diocese face realistically such a situation as this, and adopt a definite policy in regard to it.

Under the Rev. Kenneth R. Rodgers, the Mission of Emmanuel, Quakertown, made unusual progress during 1951. The woodwork of the old belfry on the church was in poor condition; soon after Easter, at a cost of $1,350, a new belfry with a cross on it was erected and the bell was rehung. An Allen organ, costing $3,655 was installed in the Church; only $800.00 is still owed. From the Diocese the sum of $150.00 was received to make repairs in the stained glass windows. Because of a gift of $800.00 from the Advancement Society, the final payment was made on rather extensive improvements in the parish house—the repairing and painting of the ceiling and walls.

In order to meet the cost of at least a part of this work, a Spring concert was given under the auspices of the men's club; and Christmas trees were sold by members of the parish—$1,000 was realized from these two projects.

In July the Vicar with his wife and two children moved from their small apartment on Hellertown Avenue to the new vicarage on South Fourth Street, which has just been completed.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation has planned, before June 1952, to raise $1,000—the cost of filling in the ground around the vicarage, putting on top soil, and seeding it.

The Rev. Harold A. Hopkins, at St. Anne's, Willow Grove, reports encouragingly a year of steady gains. Like the Mission at Royersford, the problem at St. Anne's centers in the walls of the church, where certain stones seem to be of poor texture and are crumbling; where the pointing is in bad condition; and where, in one or two places, the foundations are settling. This situation has been brought to the attention of the Property Committee of the Diocese, and will be taken care of during 1952.

St. Philip's-in-the-Field, Oreland, continues to be overcrowded not only for Sunday School but also for the 9:30 and the 11:00 o'clock Church services on Sunday mornings. A new $10,000 Allen organ was ordered in the early part of the winter and will be installed during the spring of 1952—an organ ordered with the thought in mind that it will, before long, become a part of "the new church" so sadly needed right now in Oreland. It is interesting to note that the loan of $3,500 made by the Mission less than three years ago, in order to contribute its share toward the cost of the new vicarage, has been paid off in full; and during the Every Member Canvass this past fall, tthe sum of $14,000 was pledged for parish support during 1952, of which $4,000 was a "special" to be contributed throughout the year toward the new Allen organ.

Trinity, Gulph Mills, went through the whole year of 1951 in charge of a divinity student, Mr. George C. Ruof,—the Rev. Dr. Franklin J. Clark, a retired clergyman living in Whitemarsh, going on the second Sunday of each month for a celebration of the Holy Communion.

Due to the efforts of the women of the Mission, $1,000 was raised to meet the cost of a new Wurlitzer electric organ, which was installed and paid for immediately. A new runner, at a cost of $200.00, was purchased and laid in the center aisle of the nave and chancel of the Church.

Under the direction and with the personal help of Mr. Ruof, the whole floor of the Church was given a coat of shellac. Thirty prayer books were given as memorials. A new electric lawn mower, at a cost of $100.00, was bought for use on the rather extensive lawn of the mission.

From diocesan funds, $1,305.00 was appropriated to waterproof a section of the foundation walls, through which the rain water had long been seeping and doing considerable harm to the floor of the basement where the Sunday School meets.

The congregations and Sunday School have continued to grow as new families move into the community—for the new superhighway runs not far from the Mission.

N. B. GROTON,

Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Auxiliary met twice during the year: in May at Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge; and in October at Holy Nativity Church, Rockledge.

At Valley Forge the Treasurer reported that she had received from the parishes and missions a 100% response to the appeal for $1,000 for "the permanent fixtures" at the Quakertown Vicarage. The permanent fixtures included an electric stove, a combination sink and electric dish-washer, drapes for the living room, Venetian blinds throughout the house, and papering.

During this meeting the hope was expressed that another $1,000 might be raised before May 1952, in order to meet the cost of earth, top soil, and grass seed in the necessary grading around the Quakertown Vicarage.

At Rockledge unanimous approval was given to the raising of $1,000 for grading around the Vicarage at Quakertown. The Rev. J. Marshall Frye, recently appointed Vicar at Royersford, gave a report on Epiphany Mission there.

During this meeting a group came from the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary to demonstrate the best way for any parish auxiliary to plan in advance its year's program.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The May meeting of the Convocation for the year 1951 was held at historic old Christ Church, and the October meeting at the Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga Streets.

To our Convocation, we welcome several new clergy—the Rev. G. C. Braddock of Washington at All Souls' Church for the deaf, the Rev. Walter E. Frieman of New Jersey at St. Ambrose, the Rev. Warren Davis as Chaplain of the Seamen's Church Institute, the Rev. James M. Wheatley of Indiana as rector of the Memorial Church of the Advocate, and the Rev. John W. Treleaven, the new rector of St. Luke's, Kensington.

We are sorry to lose the services of several men who have gone to new parishes. The Rev. Thomas Meryweather, who was a member of the executive committee of Convocation, left the Church of the Advocate to become rector of the Church of the Atonement in West Philadelphia; the Rev. William H. Jeffreys has gone from St. Luke's, Kensington to St. Martin's Church, Radnor; the Rev. James B. Clark from St. Ambrose to become Chaplain at Bucknell University.

The Rev. Monroe Devan is now in North Carolina after his services at St. Paul's, North Penn.

The Rev. Percy Stockman, D.D., a former Dean, retired as Chaplain of the Seamen's Church Institute, but remains as Superintendent of the Institute.

The Rev. G. Crofton Thompson, Vicar of St. George's, Richmond, has added to his duties the priestly and spiritual oversight of St. Barnabas', 3rd and Dauphin Streets, with a lay reader and Divinity student, David Hilsee, in charge of the work there.

The Rev. David Trauger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has continued to look after Emmanuel Church as well as his own.

St. Nathanael's, at Allegheny and E Street, has prospered under the oversight of a Germantown rector, the Rev. Hamilton Aulenbach, with a resident lay reader and worker, William Guerrazzi.

We appreciate the leadership and services of Dr. Percy R. Stockman at St. Paul's Mission, North Penn, where he is assisted by a new layreader, Mr. Charles Fassett.

The church building at Holy Redeemer (Polish) Mission on Richmond Street having been condemned and torn down, the people are patiently awaiting action by the authorities and Diocesan Advancement funds.

The Vicar and members of St. Mary's Italian Mission have proven themselves good neighbors, and have gone out of their way to accommodate and house the people of Holy Redeemer Polish Mission in this emergency.

As in previous years we have given scholarships from this Convocation to our Young People's Summer Conference, so again in 1951 we provided two scholarships for the Y. P. Conference at Haverford, and also two half scholarships to the Advanced Provincial Conference at Hood College, Frederick, Md.

A Convocation or a Diocese is strong if the parishes and missions are strong. We should all visit and find out about our smaller and weaker parishes in order to strengthen them and help them with some of their problems. Changing populations, people moving to the suburbs, new housing developments, are leaving some old established city parishes weakening, though in the midst of new people.

In Bishop Remington's final annual report he said these timely words:

"Philadelphia has always had many churches too near together. A good many of them should be amalgamated and the combined church continue its work in the same neighborhood. Many places were abandoned after they could no longer pay expenses with income from endowments and the contributions from members of a shrinking congregation. The challenge of the community remained, but no way was found of adapting the old church to new needs."

How true! Wouldn't one strong well equipped parish with better paid clergy accomplish more in a neighborhood and make a more favorable impression than two or three weak, struggling, dying churches?

Again we wish to thank the officers and members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation, as well as the Men's Executive Committee, for their loyalty and cooperation in carrying on the work of our Convocation.

ARTHUR MURRAY,
Dean

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
OF THE NORTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION

January meeting held at St. James the Less Church, 32nd and Clearfield Streets. We have very sad memories of March, which brought the death of our dear Mrs. Mary Pine Harrison, former Chairman of North Philadelphia Convocation.

The May meeting was held at Christ Church, 2nd and Market Streets, when a revision of By-Laws was introduced.

The October meeting was held at Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga Streets. Dean Arthur Murray spoke to us about our convocation.

Our last meeting in 1951 was held in November at Church of St. James the Less, followed by luncheon served by Woman's Auxiliary of St. James the Less Church. Our speaker, Miss Rachel Walker told of her experiences in "The Philippines."

THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

It is difficult to evaluate the work in the Convocation of South Philadelphia. Because of the changes that are taking place from year to year, we are deeply concerned about the Church in this part of God's Kingdom. Clergy and laymen are aware of their responsibilities. Some of the clergy are making a study of how best to meet the needs of the people in their communities under these changing conditions. They are not waiting for people to find the churches, but are going after them in private cars and busses to bring children to Church Schools and adults to churches. This is one of the encouraging features of the work being accomplished in South Philadelphia.

The May meeting of Convocation was held at the Chapel of the Price of Peace. The October meeting was held at St. Simon the Cyrenian.

We are happy to welcome into the fellowship of our Convocation the Rev. Harry S. Longley, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, and his assistant, The Rev. Edward B. Pollanick; also, the Rev. Emmett P. Paige, Rector of St. Mark's, and his assistant, the Rev. Paul B. Kintzinger; also, the Rev. Theron Adair Vallee, assistant at St. Elizabeth's.

We regret losing the Rev. T. Gordon Ott and the Rev. Dr. William H. Dunphy. We wish them success in their new charges.

Rev. J. Da Costa Harewood, D.D., with the cooperation of his faithful people, is doing good work at St. Phillip's Mission.

The Rev. Francis B. Roseboro, Vicar of St. Elizabeth's, with able assistance from the Rev. Theron Adair Vallee and Miss Eleanor A. Deane, is looking forward to doing a more effective work in his community.

The people of South Philadelphia joined with the other Convocations of the Diocese to make the Bryan Green Mission a success. We pray that the impact of this mission may be felt for many years.

We are grateful to the Woman's Aid to the Convocation for its cooperation in all phases of the work, and especially to Miss Frances Talbot for her splendid leadership in helping to carry out plans of the Convocation.

WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

We had three meetings of our Convocation the January meeting at Trinity Memorial Church was all day, including a most interesting talk on "The West Indies" by Mr. Henry E. Hill of the Divinity School.

The May meeting was held at Prince of Peace, this was a glorious day, as well as a sad one, Mrs. Remington gave a most beautiful talk on "Christian Charity," this was her farewell address to our Convocation. At this time we presented her as a parting gift a silver vegetable and meat platter. It was voted to give $50.00 to the Episcopal Hospital and $15.00 each to St. Simon and St. Elizabeth for Vacation Bible Schools. Mrs. Parnum presents the following slate for two years; Miss Talbot, President, Mrs. Roake, Vice-President and Treasurer and Mrs. Irwin, Secretary. The slate was unanimously elected.

The October meeting was a very busy one and most successful, it was held at Simon the Cyrenian. We accepted the project to supply the proper linens for the U.S.S. Block Island's Altar, the cost of the linen was $10.40 and the sewing and embroidery was done by the women of the Convocation. These linens were delivered in December. The report of the Needlework Guild was read. We voted $20.00 for St. Philip's, St. Elisabeth's and The Crucifixion for their Children's Christmas Party. We were credited with $144.45 for the Educational Day for the Blind. Following the meeting the Woman's Auxiliary presented their most interesting program of how to run an auxiliary meeting, planned for the winter work. Our speaker, Mr. Purdie followed with a most interesting talk on City Mission and its different connections.

I think that after reading the above everyone will realize that our three meetings have been interesting and successful. We are looking forward to new opportunities and our old commitments still to be supported.

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

At the close of the year 1951 I am indeed grateful to the Vicars in charge of the Missions of the Convocation of West Philadelphia for their splendid guidance and leadership at the Missions during the past year.

St. Cyprian's Mission—the Rev. Raymond S. Mitchell, Vicar, has never in its history made such progress as in 1951. Every organization worked endlessly. All financial obligations were met, leaving a sizeable amount in the treasury. The Church proper was painted by the men of the Mission and the basement is now being cemented. New Stations of the Cross and restoration of the dorsal curtain have added extra beauty to the Chapel. The Altar Guild has given a "Priest's Cloak," new green burse and veil, lace alb and cruet set for the credence table, and a family of the Mission gave a beautiful "Manger Set."

The Mission has attempted to do some work in the new "Lincoln Park" development which houses over 500 families. Notices and hearty welcomes have been sent to these families and many have responded to the friendly calls. Undoubtedly one of the highlights of the year was on Advent Sunday when a full vested choir of men and boys furnished the music for the entire service. The Church School was very proud to be able to make a very liberal contribution to the Advent Offering.

At St. Monica's Mission, the Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Vicar, special emphasis was on the spiritual growth and development during the past year.

The Vestry Committee, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Rector's Aid Guild and the Church School Teachers have had a Corporate Communion followed by breakfast once a month. The uplift from this corporate act was most beneficial.

The activities during the year were well supported by the members and friends of the Mission. The annual Lawn Fete, the bus trip to Jones' Beach, Long Island, the bus trip to Mt. St. Alban, our National Cathedral at Washington, D.C., and the annual Bazaar were means used to help the Mission's finances.

New ideas put into effect during the year were the Guild of the Christ Child and the Church Club. The former, I am sure is known to all, but the Church Club is another way of raising money—any person who wishes may become a member, then a card of identification is issued, a membership list is prepared and placed on the bulletin board and monthly dues of $1.00 collected and noted. The dues at present pay for heating the Mission. These dues have nothing to do with the regular pledge or offering of the communicant.

St. Titus' Mission—under the leadership of Mr. Harry Johnson—has again completed a year of achievement. A new roof was placed over the nave of the Church, the quota was met, all expenses of the Mission paid, leaving a balance in the treasury. This congregation is taking hold and helping itself splendidly.

For the sympathetic and encouraging assistance of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation, under the fine leadership of Mrs. William Sargeant, I am especially grateful. A splendid spirit of loyalty and cooperation prevails in this organization.

On Thursday evening, December 20th, the eve of its own Patronal Festival, St. Thomas' Day, the congregation of St. Thomas' Church suffered a devastating loss by fire. We share the distress and anguish of this loss with the members of this active and growing Church, and knowing of their courage and faith, feel sure that they will build again and that God will give them strength and guidance to carry His work forward.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

As usual three meetings were held for the Woman's Auxiliary of this Convocation as follows:

1. January 18th at St. Barnabas' Church, Haddington.
2. May 16th at St. Thomas' Church, 52nd and Parrish.
3. October 18th at the Church of the Saviour.

Mrs. Crema, our Devotional Secretary, arranged a Quiet Day at the Church of the Saviour on February 18th, conducted by the Rev. E. C. Harris, Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania.

Our Educational Day was held on January 18th, at St. Barnabas' Church Haddington. Mrs. Oscar deWolf Randolph, our Educational Secretary, was in charge of an excellent program. The Rev. Edward de Bordenave, Rector of Christ Church, spoke on "A Christian Community." Mrs. Fred Rodgers introduced us to the countries of "The Near East."

A Card Party was held at Lit Brothers' Suburban Store, 69th Street, netting $74.00. Coin cards were distributed for our summer project which netted $79.00. We also had a Book Review at St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, clearing $50.00. Mrs. John H. A. Bomberger reported on the May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital and thanked all those who had participated and helped to make it so successful.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Bomberger, to the Executive Committee, and to all the women who cooperated so splendidly in our efforts for the work of this Convocation.

Our sympathy goes out to the members of St. Thomas' Church, which was destroyed by fire in December. Any donation to its Building Fund will be most gratefully received.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

In the summer of 1951 occured the death of one of our most devoted workers in Christian Education, and particularly in Weekday Religious Education. The passing of Dr. Henry J. Gideon was felt by all who knew him but his untiring efforts to promote Christian Education will continue to bear fruit for years to come.

In the past year we have again had the privilege of working closely with the National Department of Christian Education and we have endeavored to keep the diocese informed as to their "thinking" as well as to new developments and publications. We were fortunate indeed to have Dr. Heuss and the College of Preachers staff conduct, for the clergy of our diocese, the same training program as that being held at the College of Preachers. It was held at The Inn, Buck Hill Falls, April 9th-13th, with approximately 160, including some clergymen from neighboring dioceses, in attendance. Very seldom has anything had such impact—and there is no doubt but it will have a permanent effect on the life of the diocese. Dr. Heuss asked the Executive Secretary and the Chairman to take charge of the administration of a similar conference for Lay Leaders in the dioceses of the Third Province at Mt. Pocono over the weekend of June 8th. This conference had the same effect on our laymen as the Buck Hill Conference had on our clergy.

The Executive Secretary, Miss Beryl M. Newman, continues to serve in an advisory capacity to the parishes and missions of the diocese. She visits Church Schools, meets with Teachers' groups and Youth Groups. The Curriculum Planning days had to be increased to three times the number of days originally set aside for that work so great was the demand.

Among other activities the Executive Secretary served on the Commission on Christian Education of the Third Province, on a committee to plan a National Meeting of Directors of Religious Education, with the Philadelphia Council of Churches and, of course, participated in various ways in the life of the Philadelphia Divinity School, the Woman's Auxiliary and the National Department of Christian Education. During the latter part of last summer she conducted an Institute for Teachers of St. Paul's Church, Chattanooga, Tenn.

During the past year there have been some changes in committee personnel. The Rev. Harold A. Hopkins resigned as Chairman of the Audio-Visual Committee and the Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh became the new Chairman. The Rev. Herbert W. Jones resigned as Chairman of the School of Christian Education Committee and the Rev. Jesse Anderson became the new Chairman. Mrs. Lorin Blodget resigned as Christmas Box Secretary and the work is now being handled by The Christmas Committee. We are grateful for their leadership which contributed so much to the work of the department. The Rev. Herbert W. Jones is now serving as Chairman of the Special Offerings Committee. The Rev. John Vander Horst, under whose guidance the Youth work in this diocese has made great strides, resigned as Dean of the Summer Conference upon his acceptance of a charge in another diocese. The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges has accepted the Chairmanship of the Summer Conference Committee and Dean of the Summer Conference.

The following reports of the various committees of the department will give a detailed account of their work in 1951.

The Church School Committee

Miss Elizabeth A. Jenks, Chairman

The 81st Annual Church School Institute was held on October 8th, 1951, which constituted a violation of tradition since the first Monday in October has, for many years, been set aside for this event. Also, the usual program pattern was changed.We were fortunate in being able to secure the Rev. Theodore O. Wedel, Warden of the College of Preachers, as our speaker. His subject was "The Theology of the New Curriculum" and since the new curriculum is for the whole parish and not just the Church School plans were made so that all parish leaders could hear him. He gave a dynamic presentation of "The Drama of Redemption" and its meaning for every individual within the Christian Church.

The Institute opened at the Christian Association with an exhibit of materials available for the Christian education of adults, with special aids for parents and teachers. This was followed by a supper for teachers, superintendents and rectors. After supper the group adjourned to the Church of the Saviour where they were joined by other Clerical and Lay people to hear Canon Wedel.

Bishop Hart closed the Institute with a Service of Dedication for teachers and other leaders in the work of the Church.

This program for the Institute was planned as a "springboard" in thinking about the Theology of the New Curriculum and was developed more fully in the Schools of Christian Education.

In cooperation with the Special Offerings Committee the 1952 issue of the Lenten Guide was prepared. The Mission study subject for 1952 is "Brazil."

The Committee on Special Offerings

The Rev. Herbert W. Jones, Chairman

The Lenten Offering totaling $68,642.03 from 177 parishes and missions was presented, again this year, at the great outdoor service on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy. This service with about three thousand people in attendance and choir of over twelve hundred was, as usual, one of the outstanding Diocesan Services of the year. We are justly proud of the fact that this service continues to grow each year and many people look upon it as something they do not want to miss. Bishop Remington was the preacher and WFIL-TV took many fine shots which were later shown in two of their newscasts.

The Advent Offering for 1951, amounting to $1,488.11, was designated for St. Andrew's-in-the-Field, Somerton, one of our growing missions in Bucks County.

The Lenten Guide for Church School Leaders was again prepared jointly by the Church School Committee and this Committee.

The Birthday Thank Offering 1950-51 was to assist St. Michael's Mission, Ethete, Wyoming, and 11 parishes gave $210.55.

Our Church Schools, under the newly organized Diocesan Christmas Committee, sent approximately 800 gifts to the Mission of St. Mary the Virgin, Sagada and Outstations, Mountain Province, Philippines, and over $200.00 to the Virgin Islands for Christmas gifts in our Church Schools there. Several thousand gifts were also sent to our own diocesan institutions and missions. This Committee wishes to acknowledge, with sincere appreciation and thanks, the herculean task performed for many years so devotedly by Mrs. Lorin Blodget our former Christmas Box Secretary.

The Vacation Church School Committee

Miss Eleanor A. Deane, Chairman

1951 was the 50th Anniversary of the Vacation Church School Movement and special observances were held throughout the country and the study theme was "The Church."

This Committee continued to help, financially or with counsel regarding curriculum and organization, many of those parishes endeavoring to utilize the idle weeks during the summer for a more effective program of Christian Education. While the total number of Episcopal Vacation Church Schools has not increased greatly there is a decided trend in this direction in the suburban areas in the diocese.

Formerly many felt the Vacation Church School was needed primarily in those areas where the children did not leave the city during the summer months and something was needed to get them off the streets. Now many concerned rectors and Christian Education leaders are recognizing the value and advantages of having our children daily for a three or four week period. The Vacation Church School is considered the best means of Christian Education for young children the Church has and this Committee hopes that it will be able to do a better job of interpreting this to our clergy in the future.

The Weekday Religious Education Committee

No report is being presented by this committee due to the death, in the early summer of 1951, of its Chairman, Dr. Henry J. Gideon. Because of the change in the laws governing this type of Christian education the function of this committee for the past two years has been to keep the department informed regarding interpretations of the laws; also of the work being done in this state and throughout the country in support of weekday religious education.

To date no one has been appointed to succeed Dr. Gideon.

The Church School-by-Mail Committee

The Rev. John C. Knewstub, Chairman

There were 330 children on roll in the Church School-by-Mail during 1951. This included 71 new members located in the outlying districts of Chester, Delaware and Bucks Counties. Seventy-three children became affiliated with the nearest Sunday School, others moved or outgrew the work, leaving a total of 208 at the end of the year. Of these 165 are in Chester Convocation, 24 in Germantown Convocation, 2 in Norristown Convocation and 17 in West Philadelphia Convocation in the Home for Incurables.

Lessons were mailed to each child for every Sunday, and 78 per cent responded, 50 per cent regularly and 28 per cent irregularly, with written work which was corrected and returned with letters. The other families responded with letters, or when visited showed that they were using and being helped by the lessons. A revision was made in the curriculum for five grades, and question sheets and letters of instruction are being planned to go with the new lesson material. The worker made 145 visits with the aid of five clergy and two lay volunteers.

Two hundred and ten scholarships were received from parishes and missions and a Lenten offering of $49.70 was given by the Church School-by-Mail families. No parish or mission supplied a worker, under the parish participation program, to send out and correct the returned lessons of children in their own outlying districts.

The Commission on Youth

The Rev. Frederic R. Murray, Chairman

Again the Youth Commission and the Youth Council have continued to have monthly meetings throughout 1951.

The mid-winter district meetings, held on January 28th in four different areas of the diocese, centered around a discussion of the Rule of Life. This was presented by panels made up of members of the Youth Council and Summer Conference alumni.

The speaker at the Diocesan Youth Convention at the Episcopal Academy on May 5th was the Rev. Samuel S. Johnston, Rector of All Saints' Church, Frederick, Maryland, and the advisor to the Provincial Youth Commission. The theme of the Convention was "Continue in that Holy Fellowship"—1950-51 theme of the U.M.C.Y. Officers of the Youth Council elected were: Chairman, Harold A. Hopkins, Jr., St. Anne's, Willow Grove; Vice Chairman, David A. Wiley, Jr., St. John's, Concord and Secretary, Barbara Bair, St. Paul's, Chester.

In Septemer at its all-day planning session at Lorimer Park, Montgomery County, the Youth Council launched out on a new venture and substituted the "Youth Guide" for the "Youth Calendar" which has been circulated annually for the last five years. The "Guide" is a mimeographed sheet and is scheduled to come out five times a year emphasizing each of the four majors of the U.M.C.Y. program and, in the spring, the Summer Conference.

A Quiet Day was held for members of the Council at St. Clement's Church, on November 24th, and was conducted by the Rev. Henry Lawrence Whittemore, Jr., Rector of Trinity Church, Swarthmore.

The annual Advent Worship Service which would have been scheduled for the first Sunday in Advent, deferred to the Bryan Green Mission and all efforts of the Council were directed to the support of the opening service of the Mission and the Bryan Green Youth Rally held on November 30th at Irvine Auditorium.

The Commission regrets that it has not been able to find a full time clerical youth worker, and with the increased cost of living despairs of doing so under the present budgetary provisions. It has, therefore, provided for an experiment which provides for the addition of stenographic help in the department office in an effort to free the Executive Secretary for more youth work. In the event that this experiment does not work out it has asked for provision in the 1953 budget that will enable the Committee to attempt to secure the services of a trained woman worker to direct the youth work.

The Summer Conference Committee

The Rev. Philemon F. Sturges, Jr., Chairman

The Annual Summer Conference for Young People was held at Haverford College July 1 to 7, 1951. The late date, and the starting of summer work, prevented many of our young people from attending with the resulting small number of 69 students and a faculty of 20. The close cooperation between the main lecturer, the Rev. Edward G. Harris, Chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania,—the Chaplain, the Rev. Frederic R. Murray, rector of St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park,—the group discussion leaders and the instructors of the third period classes, carried a great impact upon the whole conference. None of those present will ever again hear the words Sin, Judgment, Salvation, Love and the Church without knowing something of what they imply, or having some picture from that week at Haverford College rise before their mind's eye.

The conference ended on its highest pitch with an evening that opened with a presentation of a modern version of the Prodigal Son by the drama and music classes. An Open House, held in the Faculty Lounge, exhibited the work of the art classes in illustrating the Five Words and provided refreshments for all. The evening ended with a Service of Preparation for the last Holy Communion of the Conference. The Rule of Silence was observed in spirit as well as fact.

A large, enthusiastic group of young people came together at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields on December 28th to relive, for a short time, the fun they had had at the Conference last year and to look ahead to the 1952 Conference. It was a Summer Conference Reunion and it closed with a devotional service in the church.

Guild of the Christ Child

Mrs. Joseph Tatnall, Chairman

During the early part of this year the committee in charge of this area of work evaluated the results of their work under the Guild of the Little Children and decided something had to be done because so few of our parishes were actually participating in the program. The program of the Guild of the Little Children was considered by most parishes to be exceptionally good but too difficult and detailed for the average parish. After much consideration the committee decided to ask the department to endorse the use of the Guild of the Christ Child of the Diocese of Maryland which was subsequently done. We have purchased the material on which has been imprinted the name and seal of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. In the last quarter of the year almost a quarter of our parishes and missions have adopted this program. We hope in the coming year to have it used quite generally throughout the diocese.

The Adult Committee

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Chairman

A considerable amount of material so far published by the National Department of Christian Education has been in the field of Adult Education. This Committee has therefore been interested in making the material known to our parishes, and wherever possible, encouraging its use. Many parishes have conducted Study Groups using the Family Study Courses. Seven different courses in this plan have now been published.

The emphasis of our National Department of Christian Education is on a total parish program of Christian Education and believing that this can only be done effectively through a central planning committee we have prepared a guide or handbook entitled "Toward Redemptive Life Within the Parish." It gives ways and means of forming such a committee, its responsibilities and suggests over-all programs for the entire parish as well as suggestions for an adult study program. A full listing of all the new National Council publications is also included.

The Committee also urges the use of Tracts as a splendid form of Adult Education. Samples of many interesting Tracts, issued by various groups in the Church, are available in the Church House.

The Audio-Visual Committee

The Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh, Chairman

Our library of Audio-Visuals has increased greatly over the past year with the expenditure of several hundred dollars. While the library consists primarily of 2 x 2 Kodachrome slides and filmstrips we also have all the 16 mm. missionary films produced by our own National Council. The newest one is "Light of the North" a film showing our work in Alaska. Also worthy of special note are the fine filmstrips with records some of which are planned for use with parent groups and others with youth groups.

During the latter part of the year we started an Audio-Visual Cooperative which we hope will encourage parishes to plan for the regular use of these fine teaching aids. The fee for membership is $10.00 a year for larger parishes and $5.00 for the smaller parishes and missions and there is no limit to the number of slides and filmstrips one may borrow. This does not include films or equipment. We hope that during the coming year many of our parishes will become active members.

The Schools of Christian Education Committee

The Rev. Jesse Anderson, Chairman

This committee realizing its responsibility to provide effective means whereby adults could be helped to be better leaders in our parishes considered thoughtfully how best they could meet this need. The outcome was—there should be five area schools in the diocese; they should be run on a "split-week" basis—starting on Wednesday night of one week and ending on Tuesday night of the next week, excluding Saturday and Sunday nights. The theme of all schools should be the same—"You and the Holy Spirit." A lecturer would present the subject (based primarily on the new book "The Faith of the Church") to be followed by discussion groups according to "age" interest. Because of the renewed emphasis on "Relationship" in our thinking in the Church today the plan was to create a real group and through the living experience of group life discover more effective means of interpreting the Church's Faith to those for whom we carry a special responsibility. The success of the schools varied. The enrollment was not large in any of the schools due primarily to a reluctance to give up that much time, three consecutive nights in one week and two the next week, but those who came remained to bear witness that it was the best way to do an effective job. One school in particular justified the committee's faith in this procedure. The schools were: October 17, 18, 19, 22 and 23, St. Thomas', Whitemarsh and St. Mark's, Frankford; October 24, 25, 26, 29 and 30, St. Mary's, Ardmore and Holy Trinity, West Chester; October 31, November 1, 2, 5 and 6, Church House. This last school was cancelled because of the small enrollment. It was felt the reason was because it was too near the time of the Bryan Green Mission.

The Reference Committee

Miss Maude Cutler, Chairman

This committee functions only when something is referred to it for study and recommendations. It anticipates making a further study re the best time of year for the study of missions and for the Children's missionary offering which now is almost universally done during Lent. They will also consider further the preparation of a brochure on Church School Offerings.

As Chairman of the department I could not close this report without thanking the many volunteers, Clergy and Lay, who because of their deep interest in Christian Education so freely gave of their time and thoughts. We sincerely hope that this department can render an even greater service to the rectors and parishes in this diocese in the years to come.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR.

Chairman

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

for year 1951

The work of the department was carried on during the past year along the same general lines as in the past. Through the work of the Legislative Committee, state and national legislation was studied and recommendations presented. The Annual Institute of the Department was held at the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, in January, 1951 which emphasized the value to the parish of cooperation with civic and social agencies in the community. Continued activities were carried on in securing homes and jobs for displaced persons in the diocesan area, and in assisting in solving the many problems that arise in the lives of those who have been here for some time. During 1951 22 new arrivals and 12 old cases were dealt with.

The Department has been studying the possibility of greater emphasis upon trained persons in the field of family and individual relationships and has endeavored to suggest means whereby the clergy of the diocese can better prepare themselves for this growing field of ministry.

The work of the Department was greatly strengthened with the coming of the Rev. Arnold Purdie, formerly on the staff of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the National Council, who in March of 1951 assumed the joint responsibility as Executive Secretary of this Department and also Executive Director of the City Mission. This combined position was recommended by the Administrative Needs Committee of the Diocese, and should bring together into a closer working relationship the important activities of the City Mission and of this Department.

The area comprising this diocese is facing a changing industrial development, which affects housing, public and private morals and racial relations. Many three story houses are being developed into multiple apartment dwellings. Additional public housing projects are now under construction, while the reconstruction of substandard areas is continuing.

The 1951 Diocesan Convention adopted a resolution, presented by this Department, creating a Joint Committee on Urban Industrial Ministry, the personnel of which is drawn from this Department and from the Department of Missions. This type of "combined operations," originating in this diocese has received national recognition. It is hoped that as a result of this combined activity, the parishes and missions will show a greater readiness to minister to the neighborhood in which they are situated, and that the diocese will approve the various techniques that may be developed to more effectively deal with a changing condition, with special reference to an improved ministry in those areas of the diocese which are distinctly industrial.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS A. MERYWEATHER

APPENDIX J

REPORT

COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE EPISCOPATE

The Committee has adhered to its basic policy of concentrating upon publicity to induce bequests, and refraining from the solicitation of current gifts, while making it clear that these are welcome at any time. In our publicity we frequently mention the desirability of bequests to the parish or mission, placing the Fund in second place for consideration. We believe that clergy who circulate our leaflets may find some years hence that in aiding the Fund they have been aiding their own congregations.

We have continued the distribution of our leaflets and our publicity in The Church News, from the Manager of which we have received admirable cooperation and valuable advice.

Increases in the Fund since the last Report consist of a gift of $750. from Miss Gertrude Abbott, and one of $4556.17 from our chairman; the net proceeds of the card party of October 9 last, $1251.45, and the ten per cent. from offerings at Confirmations, $161.11. The book value stood at $275,072.92 on December 31, 1951 as compared with $241,761.19 on December 31, 1950. Readers who notice that the total by which the fund increased during the calendar year, $33,311.73, is far more than the items reported above, will recall that the approximate year from Report to Report, and the calendar year 1951, are different periods.

Letters have gone out to a selected list of lawyers in Philadelphia, Delaware, Montgomery, and Bucks counties, and will go out to a similar list in Chester county, calling attention to the Fund in connection with possible bequests, and enclosing a folder describing the Fund. Publicity is also going to the proper officials of trust companies.

A dinner for those clergy unable to attend the prior dinners, and for clergy arriving in the diocese since these took place, also for representative members of the laity, will be given at the Barclay April 29.

There are plans, not yet matured, for another entertainment in aid of the Fund, and especially for publicizing it. The Committee is indebted to Mrs. Birchall Hammer, one of its members, and to Miss Frances Sappington, the Committee's secretary, for the party at the Warwick already mentioned, which they managed in all its many details.

D. Alexander Wieland Esq. of St. Paul's parish, Chestnut Hill, has been added to the membership of the Committee.

For the Committee,

SPENCER ERVIN, Vice-Chairman

APPENDIX K

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been duly performed throughout the year; and numerous requests for certificates of Holy Baptism, and of Marriages and Burials, from the registers of closed parishes, have been complied with, insofar as the records were available.

The attention of all officers of Diocesan Organizations and Institutions, and of Vestries of Parishes, is called to the importance of preserving the official books of record and other documentary papers of said organizations. In case of dissolution, the said books and papers should be turned over to the Registrar as soon as possible thereafter for permanent storage in the Church House vault.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

CONVENTION 1952

The Board of The Church Foundation suffered a great loss by the death of its fellow member, Edward C. Bendere, on October 25, 1951. Mr. Bendere had been a faithful member of the Board for a period of fifteen years. He served as a valuable member of the Investment Committee and of the Executive Committee, being Chairman of the latter at the time of his death. Mr. Bendere gave of his time and his talents without stint and the Board has recorded his loss with deep sorrow.

Mr. T. Johnson Ward, partner of the investment brokerage firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane, has been elected a member of the Board to replace Mr. Bendere.

Also additions from the following sources were received:

Proceeds from Card Party held by the Committee.
Ten per cent of the Bishop's Offerings received at Confirmation Services.

The Endowment Fund of the Episcopate now has a total book value of $276,495.48.

Real Estate

During the year, title to the following properties has been acquired by The Church Foundation, either through purchase or transfer.

St. Aidan, Cheltenham Rectory—511 Cottman Street
St. Andrew Mission, Somerton
St. Ambrose, Phila. Rectory—3419 N. Howard Street
St. George, Ardmore—Parking Lots
St. James, Green Ridge—Land for new Church in process of transfer

The following sales were made of properties held by The Church Foundation, with the approval of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

St. Alban, Newtown Square—Old Mission on Bishop's Hollow Road
St. Joseph Mission, Gladwyne (with reversionary clause)
Resurrection, Mayfair—Old Rectory 3449 Wellington Street
Transfiguration Mission, Phila.
352 Penn Road, Wynnewood—Former residence of Bishop Remington

The following property was rented to an individual at the request of the Bishop.

St. Barnabas Mission, Kensington Rectory, 2247 N. 4th Street, Philadelphia

Contracts were signed for the following building projects.

St. Jude and Nativity, Plymouth Meeting, Church and Rectory	$63,590.00
St. James (Phila.) at Green Ridge, Church	51,500.00

A sum of $22,000 was contributed from the Diocesan Advancement Fund for the Church at Green Ridge. The balance was made up from the St. James (Phila.) revocable trust fund held by The Church Foundation.

Both projects are in the course of construction.

Holy Sacrament, Highland Park

A sum of $20,000 has been received from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania representing part payment for damages to the Rectory and Church of the Holy Sacrament, due to the widening of the West Chester Pike. Title to this property is in the name of The Church Foundation.

Insurance

On recommendation of The Church Foundation, the Executive Council of the Diocese adopted an increase in the Public Liability Insurance on Mission properties from $5,000/$10,000 limits to $10,000/$20,000 limits.

The Insurance Committee was instrumental in the filing of the following claims for damages and obtaining payment of same:

St. George's Church, Ardmore—Lightning Damage.....$ 75.00
Trinity Memorial Church, Phila.—Windstorm Damage.. 149.00
King Library, Church of the Redeemer, Andalusia—
Windstorm Damage..... 355.00

St. Thomas' Church, Phila.

The Rector and Wardens of St. Thomas' Church, Philadelphia asked The Church Foundation to help them in an advisory capacity with their claim for fire loss although title is not in The Church Foundation. Representatives of our Insurance Committee met with the Insurance Adjuster, Building Appraiser, representatives of the Insurance Company of North America and of St. Thomas' Church. A penalty due to under-insurance was inevitable but an offer of $72,979.10 was made and subsequently accepted by St. Thomas', being 81.3% of the $90,000 fire insurance carried. Under the circumstances, this was considered a very good settlement. However, the total estimated loss by fire amounted to $177,600.

Missions

The Church Foundation has the responsibility for keeping the Mission properties of the Diocese adequately insured. A total of $2,682,956.00 fire insurance with extended coverage is now in force on the properties of 36 Missions. This insurance is placed with the Church Fire Insurance Corporation. Periodic reviews are made by that Corporation and sound insurable values are calculated, giving effect to changes in building costs. We have attempted to keep the insurance up to 80% of this value. However, this is a difficult matter, as building costs have been rising year by year. This is brought home by the fact that over the past ten years average building costs have increased 112% in accordance with building index figures.

As a matter of interest, we are printing a list of the Mission properties herewith, showing the total of fire insurance carried by each, which includes Church, contents and Rectory, if any.

Funds

The Church Foundation is managing a total of 147 funds. Of these, 112 funds are invested in the Consolidated Investments Fund, 8 funds are separately invested, making 120 invested funds. The remaining 27 funds consist of building funds, savings, property rentals, and a fund in which income only is received.

Consolidated Investments Fund

In the 112 funds participating in the Consolidated Investments Fund, there were a total of 239,377 units outstanding as of March 5, 1952. The cost of these units was $2,566,780.21, or an average of $10.72 per unt. These funds are grouped below in accordance with size and amounts.

Funds	Size	Number Units	Cost
39	$ 1,000—$ 5,000	7,399	$ 79,991.14
25	$ 5,000—$ 10,000	16,849	179,096.63
29	$10,000—$ 25,000	41,292	452,668.16
8	$25,000—$ 50,000	26,432	284,792.85
4	$50,000—$100,000	28,291	301,067.84
7	Over $100,000	119,114	1,269,163.59
112		239,377	$2,566,780.21

Admissions and withdrawals during the year 1951 and the first quarter of 1952 were effected at the following unit values as of the indicated valuation dates:

March 5, 1951	$12.21
June 5, 1951	11.98
September 5, 1951	12.54
December 5, 1951	12.22
March 5, 1952	12.50

These values compare with the original unit value of $10 at inception of the Fund in April 1943.

The following table shows the growth and progress of the Consolidated Investments Fund since its inception.

Year Ended Dec. 5	Number Units	Total Market Value	Unit Value	Income per Unit	Yield

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

The Church's work, as carried on at the Cathedral Church of Christ, has grown considerably during the past year and with such results as abundantly justify the Bishop and Chapter in placing a resident priest to lead in these gratifying activities. Many new houses are being constructed in and about the precincts of the Cathedral so that many families have turned to this Church of the Diocese for spiritual ministrations.

Nothing has been done to draw persons of the Episcopal Church away from their former Parish connections, but the nearness of the Cathedral, especially in providing care and teaching for the children, besides families moving here from other Dioceses, have literally forced the Chapter to provide religious care for them. Provision is made for those having membership in other Parishes of the Diocese to retain such connections and to forward any envelopes found in the offerings at the Cathedral to these other Parish Churches. We dare not neglect the souls of those people living in the shadow of the Cathedral and asking for the Church's ministrations in the Bishop's and Diocesan Church. More than this, it provides the Church's care of her members at a place where otherwise the Diocese must needs erect a new Mission or Parish or be utterly negligent and unmindful of her solemn duty.

The interest and enthusiasm of this growing group of people making use of the Cathedral as a spiritual center of life is a real contribution to the increasing vitality of the whole Diocesan program.

The Chapter sustained the loss by death in its membership of Mr. Curtis Clay, a most faithful and interested Lay Canon of the Cathedral. Only this morning there occurred the burial at the Cathedral of Mr. Samuel F. Houston, Senior Lay Canon, a benefactor not only of the Cathedral but of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. NIBLO
Registrar and Canon Residentiary

APPENDIX N

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Last year the report of this Commission dealt with a brief history of the establishment of the same back in the year 1887 and its continuous helpful service to the Diocese through all the intervening years. The high point in its service was rendered one year in the twenties when some twenty-six Parishes were aided in the payment of the Rector's salary. Gradually these Parishes were re-established financially or merged with another congregation until the number of aided Parishes declined to only six in 1951.

The same was bound to be true in regard to the Church Pension Fund premiums. The year 1932 recorded the highest figure, $2,355.00 required to be expended from the Sustentation Fund in order to fulfill the requirements of the Clergy Pension Fund and keep the Pension premiums fully paid in the cases where the Parish had failed in this duty. Last year it was necessary to expend something over $200 in order to bring this to pass. It is most important that all Parishes should pay their Clergy Pension premiums when due, both to escape the interest charges required on arrears and to preserve the good name of the Diocese in its protection of the Clergy at all times, including the grant of a thousand dollars to widows of clergy at the time of the latter's death. The failure of one Parish to maintain their integrity in this matter, jeopardizes the rights of all the other Clergy in the Diocese in regard to this last grant to widows of Clergymen. Our Diocesan authorities are most careful to pay fully and systematically pension premiums for the Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen who receive their salaries or whatever part of it from the Diocesan Treasury.

Your Commission is of the opinion that the amount of money required for the year 1953 need be no more than $6,000, the same sum asked for assessment to the Sustentation Fund, the lowest amount ever asked.

In behalf of the Commission on Rectors' salaries and Pensions.

JAMES M. NIBLO
Chairman

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions be authorized to have the Executive Council assess for the work of the Commission for the year 1952 the sum of $6,000.

RESOLVED, That after July 1, 1952, the minimum salary of Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, be fixed as follows:

A. 1. At $3,000 with Rectory or living quarters and pensions premium for the first year that a single Clergyman has been Holy Orders.

A. 2. At $3,300 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for a single Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year.

B. 1. At $3,300 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for the first year that a married Clergyman has been in Holy Orders, plus an allowance of $100 a year for each child under 18 years of age, provided the total salary does not exceed $3,800.

B. 2. At $3,500 with Rectory or living quarters and pension premium for a married Clergyman who has been in Holy Orders over one year, plus an allowance of $100 a year for each child under 18 years of age, provided the total salary does not exceed $3,800.

C. If no Rectory or living quarters be provided for such Rectors, Vicars and other Clergymen, whose stipends are paid by the Diocese, then the sum of $500 shall be added to the salary, or such portion as may be deemed necessary, at the discretion of the Bishop in consultation with the Dean of the Convocation concerned, shall decide.

Your Committee, after consultation with the Bishop and the Executive Council submit a change in the next resolution concerning Clerical Salaries, by an addition after the word service on line four of said resolution the following phrase, "for good and sufficient reasons, as for example"—. We move its adoption. the resolution to read as follows:

RESOLVED, That the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions may in its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, disregard these schedules as to years of service for good and sufficient reasons, as for example in the cases of men coming into the Ministry late in life, and also in the cases of men coming into our Ministry from other religious bodies with some years of ministerial experience in their former connections.

In all cases the Pension Assessments on that part of the salary of any clergyman paid from Diocesan funds shall be paid from the same funds.

The following resolutions are printed for information having been adopted by Convention 1949.

RESOLVED, That when more than $500 annually is required from the Rectors' Salaries and Pension Assessment to pay its Rector the minimum salary, the Commission shall not make any appropriation until its Rector and Vestry shall have filed with the Bishop their agreement that the Bishop may call upon the Rector to devote a portion of his time to missionary work outside of the Parish, under the direction of the Bishop. (1934.)

RESOLVED, That if a Parish does not contribute at least $2,100 towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may withdraw or decline to make any appropriation to augment the Rector's salary, and may recommend to the Bishop, the Rector and Vestry that the Parish make application to come under the Missionary Administration as provided in Canon VIII, Sec. V. In such a case the Commission may make an appropriation towards the salary of the Rector or Vicar following the assumption of Missionary status.

RESOLVED, That where a Parish which has been receiving aid from the Rector's Salaries and Pension Assessment, and which is unable to raise at least $2,100 towards the salary of its Rector, becomes vacant, through the death, resignation or removal of its Rector, the Commission may, with the approval of the Bishop, notify the Vestry thereof that no appropriation will be made by the Commision to enable the Vestry to elect and the Parish to support a Rector; but that if the Vestry will waive, for a limited period, its right to elect a Rector and will consent to the Bishop appointing a Vicar, the Commission will help in paying his salary.

APPENDIX O

REPORT OF THE COMITTEE ON CANONS

Two propositions have come before the Committee on Canons. The first for the amendment of Canon VII, Section II, Sub-section 1; the second proposition concerns the amendment of Article IV, Section 1, of the Diocesan Constitution. The Committee has no power to pass upon the second proposition which ought to be presented to the Convention by its authors. The Committee can, however, present to the Convention, in the matter of the second proposition, certain factors in Canon Law which the Convention ought to consider.

The proposal for a change in Canon VII, Section II, Sub-section 1, arose from the request of the Bishop of the Diocese for study and clarification of this Canon "for the support of the Episcopate." It provides for a tentative budget, made up in October for "the ensuing calendar year." Meaning thereby the year following the month the budget is determined. The budget is, therefore, made up too late to be included in the financial needs of the Diocese to be placed in the hands of parishes for their Every Member Canvass.

A meeting of members of the Committee on Canons and a sub-Committee from the Standing Committee was held when it was suggested that the month of "January" be substituted for that of "October." With this change the Standing Committee agreed. But when this proposal was again presented to the Committee on Canons it became clear that this proposition would set up a budget incapable of application, by the words "ensuing calendar year," until one year from the budget's adoption. The Committee decided that this condition would be eliminated, and the relief sought for by the Bishop would be made possible, by recommending to the Convention the following changes in lines 1 and 2 of Canon VII, Section II, Sub-section 1:

Amend Canon VII, Section II, Sub-section 1

By eliminating the words from lines 1 and 2 "At its first meeting in October of each year the Standing Committee shall determine the amount . . ." so that the Canon reads as follows:

1. The Standing Committee shall determine, on or before the first of May of each year, the amount needed for the support of the Episcopate in the Diocese during the ensuing year. . . .

Concerning the proposition to amend Article IV, Sec. 1, of the Diocesan Constitution.

Five clergymen of this Diocese submitted to the Committee on Canons a proposition to amend Canon II, Secs. V and VI, by eliminating the word "male" from the clause "a male Communicant of this Church" in line 7 of Sec. V and line 5 of Sec. VI. The proposal would also have called for the elimination of the pronoun "he" in Sec. V, and the substitution of another word. It was thought by the authors of the proposition that the Canon, in effect, discriminated against women, and was not in harmony either with Christian principles or the Diocesan Constitution. Reference was to Article IV, Sec. 2 of the Diocese Constitution, which does not refer to the sex of Lay Deputies to this Convention. However, Article IV, Sec. 1 of the Constitution does refer to "Clergymen and Laymen" who shall compose this Convention. The proposition, therefore, is not first to amend the Canons, but to amend, if the Convention so wishes, the Diocesan Constitution.

The Committee on Canons agreed that the following observations in Canon Law, and the interpretation of that law, be placed before the Convention for their guidance when, and if, the proposition to amend the Constitution is presented.

The authors of the proposition to amend Canon II, Secs. V and VI thought "the simple deletion of the word 'male'" from these sections would easily resolve the difficulty. This is not the case. Sec. 2 of Article IV, to which the authors of the proposition referred, does not mention the sex of Lay Deputies to this Convention, but Sec. 1 of the same Article does mention it. Yet more, it appears to be the settled practice of the Church to read Diocesan Constitutions in the light of the General Constitution of this Church in other matters, and so in the matter of Lay Deputies to Diocesan Conventions. It appears to be the settled principle in Canon Law that the legislation of a Diocesan Synod is binding on the whole Diocese, and that this legislation must not be contrary to, but in harmony with, the provisions of the General Constitution, and the General Canons. Such legislation may be different from, but not contrary to, the legislation and interpretation of the General Code. This is the opinion of the canonist Philip Lempriere in his book, A Compendium of Canon Law, page 12.

It is also the opinion of Edwin Augustine White. This is the position taken by White in his Annotated Constitution and Canons, specifically on pages 117 to 119. "There is no such thing," says White, "as an independent diocese." In his commentary on Article XI, at pages 117 to 119, White says the Church in the Diocese, not the Diocesan Convention, is represented in the General Convention. Further, the Church has powers inherent within itself to set up a General Synod, and a General Synod is empowered to contrive a Constitution. Thus, the Constitution of the General Convention is not the Constitution of the Church, "nor is it a Constitution in the true sense of the word, but only a higher set of Canons, made more stable and less liable to change, by requiring two Conventions to alter them." In a sense this is true of Diocesan Constitutions and Canons.

The acts of the General Convention are binding on the Church in its respective parts in Dioceses and Districts—even so far as the interpretation of the Constitution is concerned. Dioceses, having surrendered certain of their sovereignty to the National Church, can enact legislation within their jurisdictions. But such legislation is limited to those acts "wherein there is no repugnance between the different acts of legislation." (White, p. 118.)

White continues at length, on pages 118 and 119:

". . . They [the Dioceses] only retain the right to legislate on subjects reserved to them by the Constitution, or on subjects on which the General Convention has not legislated. It seems to be the better opinion that they also still retain the power to legislate upon the same subject matter in addition to the legislation of the General Convention, provided there is no repugnance between the different acts of legislation. But when the General Convention enacts a law upon a subject, not contrary to some provision of the Constitution, it becomes the supreme law for every Diocese, superseding any and every Diocesan law or regulation on that subject at variance with it. The history of the legislation of the General Convention since its formation shows that the Convention has again and again taken to itself powers which once belonged to the Diocese, and in some cases to the individual parish. This fact demonstrates the correctness of the theory, as we have before stated, upon which the General Convention has ever acted from the beginning of its history, that it has the power to legislate on any subject unless expressly forbidden to do so by the Constitution. The General Convention not only makes the Constitution and amends it, but it interprets the Constitution. The General Convention limits its own power, and it can remove that limitation. It assumes that all power is in the General Convention which the Constitution itself does not limit. The one conclusion that follows from these facts is, that the General Convention is the ultimate seat of authority in American Church government."

(Italics added.)

Article I, Sec. 4 of the General Constitution speaks of Deputies to the General Convention as "Laymen, communicants of this Church, etc." Further, paragraph 2 of the same Section, referring to representation in the House of Deputies from a Missionary District, speaks of "not more than one Layman, a communicant of this Church, etc." Conventions of the Church, as late as 1949, have interpreted, whether rightly or wrongly is not the issue here, "Laymen" and "Layman" to mean male communicants of this Church. Further, this interpretation is synonomous with the provision in Canon I, Sec. 2 (c) of the General Canons of 1949, concerning vacancies for cause in lay deputations from Dioceses, etc. This Section of Canon 1 provides that a Diocese may, for cause, designate a provisional deputy who "shall have a certificate issued to him by the appointing power. . . ." (Italics added.) Neither Constitution nor Canons of the General Convention anticipate the Deputy to be other than a male communicant of this Church. The Constitution and Canons are to be read in the light of each other, the Canons implementing the Constitution in details of particular law. The General Canons appear, in this instance at least, to conform with the Constitutional requirements in the matter of Lay Deputies.

Just so, then, the Diocesan Canons, in the matter of Lay Deputies to the Diocesan Convention, conform with the Diocesan Constitution, and implement it. Section 2, of Article IV does not refer to the sex of Lay Deputies, but Section 1 of Article IV, speaking of "Clergymen and Laymen," is not at "variance" with Sections V and VI of Canon II which speak of "male Communicant of this Church." Canon II, Secs. V and VI, further implements Article IV by particular legislation in mentioning, as lawfully elected Lay Deputy to the Diocesan Convention, one who is "a male Communicant of this Church." Cf. the phraseology adopted in the General Constitution and Canons, and the interpretation of them.

Article I, Sec. 4, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the General Constitution states:

"Sec. 4. The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, having domicile in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

"The Church in each Missionary District which shall have been established in accordance with the Constitution and Canons for the government of this Church, shall also be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than one Presbyter, canonically resident in the Missionary District. Each Missionary District shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen. Deputies from such Missionary Districts, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, shall be subject to all of the qualifications and with all of the rights of Deputies from Dioceses."

Canon 1, of the General Canons, entitled Of the General Convention, at Sec. 2 (c), entitled Vacancies, how applied, and Provisional Deputies, states:

"(c). Any vacancy in the representation of any Diocese caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy, shall be supplied either temporarily or permanently in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Diocese, or, in the absence of any such provision, by appointment by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese. During such periods as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the appointing power, the Provisional Deputy so appointed shall possess and shall be entitled to exercise the power and authority of the Deputy in the place of whom he shall have been designated."

It seems to be clear from the wording of the General Constitution, and by the adoption and use of the personal pronouns "him" and "he" in Canon 1, that the representation in the House of Deputies of the General Convention is restricted to "male" communicants of this Church. This wording bears similarity with that of the Diocesan Constitution and Canon to which reference has been made.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania a woman was elected, in 1887, Deputy to the Diocesan Convention from Chadd's Ford. The Committee on Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats rejected her claim on the basis of Article IV, Sec. 1, of the Diocesan Constitution, previously referred to, and another section since deleted from Sec. 2 of the same Article. The pronoun "he" or "him" in the canons of the day were interpreted, as they now are, to mean male communicants only. The Diocesan Convention upheld its Committee on Claims to Seats, and rejected the credentials of the Lay Deputy from Chadd's Ford.

Again, in 1895, the Diocesan Convention refused to amend Article IV, Sec. 2, which provided that Lay Deputies "be elected by the Vestry of said Church."

If the Diocesan Convention is amenable to such change, it would appear that the best, if more difficult, procedure in amending the law on the qualifications of Lay Deputies elected to this Convention would be to delete the word "Laymen" in Article IV, Sec. 1, and substitute the words "Lay Deputies" or "Lay Persons." It would then be possible—at least technically so—to delete the word "male" in Sections V and VI of Canon II, and change the pronoun "he" in the same Sec. V, to bring them into conformity with the general provisions of amended Article IV, Sec. 1 of the Constitution. The decision to do this rests with the Diocesan Convention, although it would appear to be moving at variance with the current and accepted interpretation of the General Code on the subject in this Church. It seems that logically the change is first Constitutional, and then Canonical.

The Constitution of this Diocese provides, in Article X, that a proposition to amend the Constitution be presented in writing, and if approved at one Convention it shall lie over to the next, when a vote by Orders shall be taken. The Article reads:

"The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention, and if approved of shall lie over to the next Convention; and if again approved of in the next ensuing Convention, by a majority of the two Orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory, from and after the final adjournment of the Convention."

APPENDIX P

Report of Committee on Incorporation to the Diocesan Convention

I. Respecting The Incorporation of New Parishes.

(1) The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE, Darby Road and Ardmore Avenue, Haverford Township, Pennsylvania, to become an incorporated parish.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles of Incorporation are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation. The Committee also finds that the Bishop and Standing Committee have approved the written application of NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE for consent to the formation of the parish as required by the Canons.

Your Committee therefore offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED that NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of NEVIL MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. GEORGE be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

(2) The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, Pennsylvania, to become an incorporated parish.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles of Incorporation are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation. The Committee also finds that the Bishop and Standing Committee have approved the written application of THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, for consent to the formation of the parish as required by the Canons.

Your Committee therefore offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED that THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, MORRISVILLE, be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

(3) The Committee on Incorporation has considered the application of ST. PETER'S CHURCH, Glenside, Pennsylvania, to become an incorporated parish.

The Committee finds that the proposed Articles of Incorporation are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation. The Committee also finds that the Bishop and Standing Committee have approved the written application of ST. PETER'S CHURCH for consent to the formation of the parish as required by the Canons.

Your Committee therefore offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED that ST. PETER'S CHURCH, Glenside, be admitted into union with the Convention but without vote at this Convention; that the proposed Articles of Incorporation of ST. PETER'S CHURCH be approved by the Convention and that permission be given to apply to the proper court to grant the same.

II. Respecting Informal Amendment to Articles of Incorporation by By-Law.

(1) THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF ST. MARK'S CHURCH IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA has amended its charter by by-law to provide for a rotating vestry of twelve members. This amendment is in conformity with the approved form of articles of incorporation.

III. Respecting Informal Amendment of the Charter.

(1) THE RECTOR, CHURCH WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF THE CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, ROSEMONT, PENNSYLVANIA has amended its charter to read: the name of the corporation shall be "The Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, Pennsylvania."

VII. The qualifications, methods of selection, tenure, duties and number of officers of the vestry shall be such as the statutes and by-laws may from time to time prescribe.

APPENDIX Q

REPORT OF
THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL HISTORY

After three years, this Committee has finally completed the listing of Churches in the order of their formation, and the same has been published in the Church News. It is now possible to tell approximately when each Church in the Diocese was started. In order to accomplish this, it was necessary to go through all the Diocesan Journals, a long and tedious task.

We do not have in our files any historical records or papers of half of the parishes or missions. This is especially true of missions and chapels. There are some Churches which do not seem to know when they started, and others which have never had any kind of an anniversary celebration. As the years go by, it becomes more difficult to compile historical material, so we urge parishes to write their histories now and to send us copies.

Looking over the list, which we have recently completed we find that two Churches at least will be celebrating their 250th anniversary in the year 1952. Another will be 125 years old. This will be the 100th year for still another parish. And so on down the list.

This listing of Churches in the chronological order of their formation, makes it possible to get a bird's eye view of what has been happening in the Diocese since the early days. We now know that the period of greatest expansion was in the latter half of the 19th century, when 165 new Churches were started. During the last fifty years, there has been a slowing up in the formation of new work. Also, more Churches have been closed during the last 25 years than during any other similar period of time.

Whether the reason for this decline in starting new work, is due to a lessening of missionary spirit, or to the shifts in population, or to great racial changes taking place in our city, is not within the scope of this committee to determine. We have prepared the facts. Now, "he that runs may read."

Respectfully submitted,

The following have been recommended for ordination to the Diaconate, only:

James Gay Ludwig, 3rd.
William Anthony Guerrazzi

The following have been recommended for ordination to Holy Orders:

Stuart A. Ladd Thomas
Richard Ogden Partington
Henry Moeller Prentiss
William David Leech
John Frederick Leser
Harry Riddle Johnson, Jr.
John Randall Wilkins
Alfred Noble Redding

Of special interest is the number of Ministers from other Christian Bodies that have recently come into our ministry. In the past two years we have had two ministers from the Presbyterians, two from the Methodists, and one from the Baptists. Several others are now in the process of preparing for the ministry of our Church.

In recent years the age of men entering the ministry has been increasing. A number of men of riper years have been preparing for the ministry. Two of them have been over sixty, one has been fifty, and four have been over forty years of age. The average age of the ten men we have recommended for ordination during the past year is 39. Only two were under thirty years of age.

The Board offers the following RESOLUTION:

RESOLVED, That the appropriation of $150 for expenses be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

J. WESLEY TWELVES, Chairman

ATTEST: John R. Huggins, Secretary

APPENDIX S

Report of the Commission on Music

The Commission on Music of the Diocese of Pennsylvania reports the following schedule of events during the past year:

In charge of the music at the Bryan Green Mission and the Presentation Service of the Mite Box Offering.

We conducted a Junior Choir Festival on April 27th and will for the first time conduct a Festival of Adult Choirs on May 28th under the direction of Ernest Willoughby.

The Diocesan Choir sang at several Diocesan Services.

We are planning a conference for clergy, organists and choirmasters for October 21st and have secured Mr. Ray Brown of the General Theological Seminary to lead the Conference.

We have three publications that are available:

1. A list of Service Music and Anthems.
2. The 1940 Hymnal.
3. A Bibliography of Church Music and Allied Subjects.

The Commission offers the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Commission on Music be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

2. Resolved, That the appropriation for the work of the Commission on Music for 1953 be $700.00.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM P. C. LOANE, Chairman

ROMA ANGEL, Secretary

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE DIOCESAN LIBRARY FOR 1951

During 1951, eleven magazines were subscribed for and placed on the rack in Room 11. Forty-nine books were purchased and placed on the shelves. An average of fifty books were out at a time. New, as well as timely books, were listed in the Church News; and lists of books purchased during the last three years were sent to all of the clergy.

As usual during the summer, the books were cleaned and checked with the catalogue. The catalogue is in the office of the Librarian, Room 37, third floor Church House, for the convenience of anyone needing a book. The Library has its own telephone for anyone wishing to inquire about a book. The Library is entirely free to all clergy and laity of the Diocese, who may choose a book to check out and return at the Information Window.

It is with deep regret that we announce the passing of a faithful and efficient member of the Board of Control, Dr. Henry J. Gideon. His kindliness of spirit and his willingness to serve leaves a vacancy not easy to fill. He brought to the Board a ripe experience gained through his labors in the Educational world as well as that of a vestryman and deputy to Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY E. KOHL, Librarian,

For the Board of Control.

APPENDIX U

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION FOR CHRISTIAN WORK IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Financial help for work with Episcopal students has been continued during the past year at those colleges and universities in the diocese where it had been given in previous years. In addition, a modest appropriation was made toward the support of the work that is being done at Drexel Institute of Technology under the leadership of the Reverend Norman C. Farnlof; and a small sum was contributed toward the expenses of two meetings held at the University of Pennsylvania in February for faculty members and gradaute students.

The bulk of the money available continues to go to the work at the University of Pennsylvania, and the contribution of the Corporation for this purpose is considerably supplemented by funds raised by our Episcopal Committee there. The Reverend William X Smith has been in charge of the student work at the University since last summer.

Diocesan conferences for college students were held at Saint Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, in April and November. In addition to the two meetings at the University of Pennsylvania mentioned in the first paragraph, a meeting for faculty members of the colleges and universities in the diocese was held at Saint Mark's Church late in November.

Miss Hazel King, the Provincial Secretary for College Work, now has her office at the Church House. Her presence in Philadelphia has been a very great help in all phases of the college work in this diocese, and it has been especially appreciated at the present time, when the Corporation is without an Executive Secretary. In addition to the help she has given in other ways, she took full charge of the work with Episcopal students at Temple University during the time when the Church of the Advocate was without a rector.

It is estimated that there are probably as many as five thousand Episcopal students in the various institutions of higher learning situated within this diocese. Our college work touches only a small proportion of these students. There are several institutions right in the city of Philadelphia where no work is being carried on with Episcopal students at all. Yet the importance of what the Church does for these young men and women from among whom our future leaders will be recruited must be obvious to everyone. The funds at the disposal of the Corporation are wholly provided from an appropriation in the diocesan budget. In view of the evident need for increasing the range of the Church's work in institutions of higher learning, it is hoped that generous additional resources will be made available before long by individual donors.

Respectfully submitted,

L. R. SHERO, President

APPENDIX V

Report on the Bryan Green Mission

There isn't much I need to tell you about the Bryan Green Mission. First, all bills were met and paid for when the Mission was over and the Diocese was able to send $1500. to Bryan Green's Evangelism Fund and $1500. was set aside for the work in lower Bucks County.

We all know about the attendance at Convention Hall. We all know about the experience we shared. I should like personally, for all the members of our committee, to say that I never worked anywhere under any circumstances with a more enthusiastic, co-operative group of people than the members of that committee headed up by Blair Lee and Mrs. Beath. Of all the people that I, in your name, asked to participate, only one man said he was sorry he could not do the job.

When the clergy met at St. Mary's, Ardmore last September, I don't think we had any conception what this Mission would mean. I can't say enough about the enthusiastic co-operation of the clergy of this Diocese. I can't tell you how many jokes I have heard about the clergy not answering letters. You answered letters, you passed on information to us, you enlisted lay people in your parishes to help us. On that thrilling Sunday night when Bishop Hart and I looked up from that platform, I was all goose pimples. It was overwhelming to see 15 to 17 thousand people. They were there because we do believe in and love God through Jesus Christ by means of the Holy Spirit and we were in the fellowship. I said something like this to Bishop Hart, "If you need any evidence of the unity and solidarity of the Diocese, look around."

Bishop Hart said last night in his address that he has confirmed people as a result of the Bryan Green Mission. I have too. I am thinking of one young woman who has been baptized and confirmed since the Bryan Green Mission. There have been changed lives. I think there are very few of us here who have not in one way or another been directly affected by that experience in our conviction and daily lives.

The Mission is going on: Bible groups, study groups, a new approach to unified preaching during Lent. This is the process of sanctification after conversion.

We are looking forward to a reunion. Bryan Green is coming back with Harold Frankham to Irvine Auditorium on December 1. I hope you and your people and your friends, as many of you who can, will come and fill that auditorium, which seats 2000, that night.

To repeat myself about our job: you did it magnificently!

Respectfully submitted,

J. GILLESPIE ARMSTRONG, Chairman

APPENDIX W

Report on the Diocesan Advancement Fund

Bishop Hart has asked me as Chairman to make a short report on the Diocesan Advancement Fund. I wish I had better news!

As you know, our goal was $400,000. To date, using round figures, we have raised $389,200. Of this, $308,094.14 has been deposited in the Pennsylvania Company Custodian Account, and the remainder is in good pledges.

The Fund had three objectives.

No. 1 was $150,000 for Church Extension. This has been attained.

No. 2 was $125,000 for the Divinity School. This has not only been attained, but has been considerably over-subscribed. (More than $165,000 has been designated for the Divinity School and this includes an anonymous gift of $100,000).

No. 3 objective was $125,000 for the Diocesan Conference Center. We still need about $80,000 to reach this amount and I believe that now that we can concentrate on raising the requirement for the Conference Center, which is a most desirable addition to the Diocesan organization, we should in a reasonable time be able to complete the Fund. The books are still open for subscriptions, large or small.

That is the report.

But I want to take this opportunity again to thank the 1700 generous contributors whose names we have, and all those who contributed through their parishes, whose names we do not have.

And I want to thank the many "workers" for this Fund, who made it possible. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. NEWHALL, Chairman

APPENDIX X

Report of Joint Committee on Urban Work

On October 4th, 1951, Bishop Hart, in compliance with the resolution passed at the last Diocesan Convention, appointed a Joint Committee on Urban Work, consisting of members representing the Department of Christian Social Relations and the Department of Missions, for the purpose of "studying the social and religious needs of the areas in which there is a changing population, and to make recommendations to the Bishop and to the vestries of parishes in such areas for the purpose of strengthening the ministration of the Church to all residents of such areas."

With this tremendous task in mind, we met for organization and to study how best we might begin and where and how we might proceed. Realizing the importance of the duties assigned our committee, we sought the aid and advice of experts in this field. We met with Mr. Frank J. Fell, Jr., of the Philadelphia Council of Churches, Dr. Paul Douglass, Consultant to the National Council of the Episcopal Church in Reference to Urban Church Strategy, and the Rev. William Villaume, Director of Urban Work of the National Council of Churches of Christ.

After a number of meetings, the committee came to the conclusion that it should undertake a limited project and, on the recommendation of Bishop Armstrong, it decided to concentrate on the seven churches and missions in the section South of Pine Street and West of Broad Street.

With this recommendation in mind, we are having a dinner meeting on May 14th, at the Memorial Church of St. Paul, with representatives from these parishes and missions, the Joint Committee on Urban Work and the Rev. Clifford Samuelson and Dr. M. V. Dennis, both of 281, to explore the possibilities of work in this area through the use of the Urban Self-Study form.

In this report we can only say that we are progressing slowly in our efforts. We hope that by next convention we may have a full report with recommendations.

The Committee offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Urban work be continued, with power to fill vacancies or to add to its membership.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS PARKER
For the Committee

APPENDIX Y

Report of the Chairman of the Department of Christian Education

The Department is continuing to emphasize the all important theological philosophy behind Christian Education as presented by our National Church. This educational program—so often mistaken for Sunday School work only—is indeed a living thing which the whole parish must share. We must have a sound theological foundation on which all our Christian Education and instruction should be based. It is only if the parish looks at Christian Education as an extremely important function of the Christian Fellowship—a learning experience—that it can have any real meaning and lasting significance. Our clergy felt this very strongly at Buck Hill Falls when they experienced Christian Education at work. Some of our laymen experienced it at Mt. Pocono last June. Your diocesan Department is now trying to bring it to the parish level. We cannot over emphasize the importance of the team of the National Church which will visit this diocese in January and February of next year. The benefits of this should be tremendous in this diocese and can be one of the most wonderful things that has ever happened to us. Operating out of eight centers we hope to infiltrate into all of our parishes the educational approach of our church. We, therefore, ask for large representation of lay people from all parishes—not only Sunday School teachers, but vestries, lay men and women members of our church with its welfare at heart. In the fall you will hear more about our plans. In the meantime the Rev. Grant Morrill, the leader of the team, will meet with all the members of the Department on May 19th. The Deans will be invited also to this meeting.

Many of you might not know how many people in this diocese are working in our Department. A conservative estimate is that at least 125 persons, both clergy and lay, are actively helping us by serving on one of the many committees.

I also would like to call attention to the Curriculum Planning Days. The dates are:

May 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29
and
June 10, 11, 12, 17 and 18

These are being held for the purpose of assisting rectors, superintendents and Church School teachers to acquaint themselves with the Church School material for all ages which we feel we can recommend. Appointments should be made through the Church House.

Our Young People in this diocese unanimously adopted a resolution that at their Corporate Communion and Breakfast, to be held on October 18th in commemoration of the 10th Anniversary of our Bishop's Consecration, they have set as a minimum goal 1000 young people kneeling together at God's altar in thanksgiving for the many blessings that have been bestowed upon this diocese during these ten years of Bishop Hart's leadership.

The Department is fully aware of the tremendous responsibility assigned to it and is anxious to serve the diocese to the best of its ability. Suggestions where we can be of greater help and benefit to the diocese, therefore, are always welcome. Please do not hesitate to use us wherever you feel we can be of help to you—whether it be in the field of religion in the home, Sunday School work, curriculum, evaluation, teacher training, weekday religious work, work with our young people, Church School by Mail, conferences, Summer Vacation Bible Schools and programs or educational work with our adults.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER C. VAN DER HIEL, JR., Chairman
